Unwelcome Habit

IT has become a habit, by force of circumstances, for us to emphasise on this page in the last few home matches that it is essential that we should pull off a win and so improve our precarious position in the First Division.

There is no need to labour the point today. In welcoming our friends and rivals from Chelsea, we know that everyone on the ground is aware of the drama about to unfold here this afternoon.

We have had many tense matches with Chelsea in the past. History in fact records that in 1910 Spurs and Chelsea met in the last match of the season on this ground, and our 2-1 win saved our own First Division status and doomed the West Londoners to Division 2.

We bear our visitors no ill will, but the same result today would be welcomed with joy by everyone with Spurs' interests at heart.

Yet even with the encouragement of such a result, we still have a hard task ahead, and must think only in terms of victory both at Arsenal Stadium next Saturday and in our final match, at home to Leeds on the following Monday.

DISSAPPOINTMENT

Defeat by 3-2 at Burnley last Saturday came as a bitter disappointment. Admittedly we had a poor first half, and went in two goals down at half-time.

After Peter Noble had scored twice for Burnley, it was obvious we faced an uphill task. Our players deserve credit for the way they fought back in the second half.

Their rally reflected great spirit and character, and their success in pulling level through goals by Duncan (57th minute) and Steve Perryman (64th minute) encourages us to believe that we can still pull clear of the bottom three places. After a revival like that it was tough that we should have been beaten by a penalty kick converted by Leighton James in the 67th minute for an alleged offence by Perryman on Brian Flynn. Team: Jennings; McAllister, Knowles, Beal, Osgood, Naylor, Conn, Perryman, Jones, Coates and Duncan. Pratt stood by as substitute.

QUIZ-TIME

1. Who scored the goal that knocked Spurs out of the F.A. Cup this season?
2. Against which club did Mike England play his last match for Spurs?
3. It was on Chelsea's ground that Spurs defeated Wolverhampton Wanderers 1-0 in the F.A. Cup final of 1921. Who scored the goal?
4. Tommy Harmer played for Spurs, Chelsea and another League club. Can you name the other club?
5. In which year did Chelsea win the Football League Cup by beating Leicester City in the final?

The answers will be found on page 14

LAST SEASON

Last season Chelsea defeated us here in the League by 2-1. Spurs had a good first half, and at the break we led by a goal scored with a dipping shot by Ray Evans following good work by Alan Gilzean and Martin Chivers.

Chelsea were a different team in the second half, and Micky Droy put them level with a header. Midway through the half Pat Jennings touched but failed to stop a shot by Ron Harris from rolling over our goal-line.

It was in that match that Neil McNab had his first taste of First Division football as a substitute for the last ten minutes. The gate figure that April evening was 23,646 and the teams were—SPURS: Jennings; Evans, Naylor (sub. N. McNab), Pratt, Dillon, Beal, McGrath, Kinnear, Chivers, Gilzean and Coates. CHELSEA: Phillips; Harris, Sparrow, Hollins, Droy, Hinton, Swain, Wilkins, R., Houseman, Garner and Cooke.

FULL PROS.

STEVE WALFORD, GLENN HODDLE and IAN CRANSTONE have all been upgraded from apprentice to full professional rank.

Walford (centre-half) and Hoddle (midfield) had been on apprentice forms since last April. Steve comes from Islington and is a product of the Islington Boys' team. This season he has made 13 appearances in our Football Combination team.

Glenn, who has played for the England Youth team this season, has had 8 matches in the Combination side. He comes from Harlow and played for both Harlow and Essex Boys.

Cranstone, who was born at Rochford and played for South-East Essex Boys, has made 5 appearances in the Combination this season. A goal-keeper, he had been on apprentice forms since July, 1972.

We wish each of them the very best of luck.

John Duncan glances Cyril Knowles' cross into the net for Spurs' first goal.

A few minutes later Steve Perryman's volley levels the scores at 2-2.

TODAY'S VISITORS

CHELSEA

LAST season Chelsea finished in 17th position on the First Division chart. It was a disappointing record for our West London rivals, but we know that in the light of their present situation in the League, they would be relieved to finish as high this time!

Chelsea regained their First Division place in 1963, and prior to season 1972-73, when they finished twelfth, had not held a lower final position than ninth in any of the nine intervening seasons.

Like ourselves, Chelsea had a change of manager early this season. After Dave Sexton's departure from Stamford Bridge, Ron Suart took over and was in charge of the team by the time we visited Stamford Bridge in October.

Mr. Suart was a defender in his playing days with Blackburn Rovers and Blackpool, and he has also managed Scunthorpe United and Blackpool. When he was manager of Blackpool, his trainer-coach was Wilf Dixon, who is now our own assistant manager.

THE PLAYERS

JOHN PHILLIPS (Goalkeeper). Born Shrewsbury but a Welsh international. Started with Shrewsbury Town and joined Chelsea from Aston Villa in 1970.

GARRY LOCKE (Defender). Born London and a product of Chelsea's apprentice ranks. Made his League debut two seasons ago.

MARVIN HINTON (Defender). Born Croydon and made his name with Charlton Athletic. Moved to Chelsea in August, 1963.

MICKY DROY (Defender). Born Highbury and played for Islington Boys. Was an amateur with Slough before turning pro. for Chelsea.

RON HARRIS (Defender). Born Hackney and has been a Chelsea professional since 1961. Former England Under-23 player.

JOHN HOLLINS (Defender). English international. Born Guildford, and developed through Chelsea's junior ranks. Has also played for the Under-23s and the Football League.

STEVE KEMBER (Midfield). Born Croydon and started with Crystal Palace. Moved from Palace to Chelsea in 1971.

DAVID HAY (Midfield). Signed from Celtic last August. Spent nine years with Celtic. Has many Scottish caps.

CHARLIE COOKE (Midfield). Rejoined Chelsea from Crystal Palace in January, 1974. First joined Chelsea from Dundee in 1966. Scottish international.

IAN HUTCHINSON (Forward). Signed from Cambridge United in 1968. Born at Derby and previously played for Burton Albion.

PETER HOUSEMAN (Forward). Comes from Battersea. Joined Chelsea straight from school in Wandsworth. A full professional since 1962.

BILL GARNER (Forward). Born Leicester and joined Chelsea from Southend United in September, 1972. Previously played for Bedford Town.

Charlie Cooke

OLD-TIMER

HARRY BURGESS was a star inside-forward with Chelsea up to the time war broke out. He made four appearances in the full England team as a Sheffield Wednesday player, and moved from Hillsborough to Chelsea in March, 1935. He scored the first of Wednesday's goals in the 2-2 draw in the third round of the F.A. Cup against Spurs here in 1932.

REFEREE FOR TODAY

Mr. Jack Taylor, the referee today, has a dazzling record. He has controlled more than 50 international and European Cup games in 32 different countries, including China and Russia.

Mr. Taylor was appointed to the Football League Line in 1955 after officiating in local leagues and the Birmingham League. In 1958 he was promoted to the referees' list and subsequently was appointed to the F.I.F.A. and U.E.F.A. panels.

A World Cup referee in 1966, 1970 and 1974, he took charge of the 1971 European Cup final at Wembley, the 1966 F.A. Cup final and the 1962 F.A. Amateur Cup final. He has also refereed F.A. Charity Shield matches, Irish Cup finals and F.A. Youth Cup finals.

During the 1974 World Cup series, he was on the line for two matches and refereed three games, including the final.

A self-employed butcher, he is a magistrate in Wolverhampton and a member of the sports Advisory Council.

President of Wolverhampton Sunday League, chairman of the Charity Cup competition and a member of the Birmingham County F.A., he serves on several committees and is a referees' examiner.

THE BAND FROM BRAINTREE

It is with pleasure that we welcome the Marching and Concert Band of Braintree today and thank them for their attendance.

Formed in 1969, this Band has over the past years progressed from a group of 16 members to a fully-fledged Carnival and Concert Band.

They have appeared at many of the most important carnivals in East Anglia and are booked every year to march in the famous Spalding Flower Parade.

Under the direction of their Bandmaster, Mr. Hilary Hurst, they perform in the American style and play all types of popular music from Bach to Boogie. The Band is composed of 52 musicians whose ages range from 9 to 17 years and they play a variety of instruments.

Last year they produced their first L.P. and with this success behind them, hope to cut another disc in the near future.

For the third year in succession they will march in September in this year's Edmonton Carnival.

Today's performance is, of course, dependent upon suitable weather conditions.

JOE KINNEAR

JOE KINNEAR has made 23 international appearances for Eire. Two more and he will qualify for the handsome trophy made of Connemara marble presented by Eire to players making 25 appearances.

In the course of his international games there have been many highlights and incidents, but the occasion that stands out most for him was last May, when he lined up against Brazil at the Maracana Stadium in Rio de Janeiro.

Eire lost the match 2-1, but for Joe it was a great experience. He had always wanted to play against Brazil and his only regret is that Pele, although in the squad, did not play in that match.

"The ground and atmosphere of the crowd in Rio that day left a deep impression on me" says Joe. "That was Brazil's last match before the World Cup."

Joe was born in Dublin, but spent most of his boyhood in Watford. He joined Spurs as an amateur in August, 1963, and signed as a professional in February, 1965.

His League debut for us was against West Ham United on Good Friday, 1966. It was a home match, and we lost 4-1.

When that season ended, Kinnear had made 8 League appearances. In the following season he was a member of our F.A. Cup-winning team against Chelsea, and Joe regards that occasion as the highlight of his career with Spurs. "It was tremendous to be able to come away from Wembley as Cup-winners", he says.

CUP FINALS

It is, of course, an experience that was repeated for Joe after our two Football League Cup finals in 1971 and 1973. He also had the distinction of playing in our team that won the U.E.F.A. Cup final in 1972.

Joe has known the other side of football fortune. His worst experience was breaking his right leg in two places in the home League match with Leeds United in January, 1969. That put him out of action for a long time.

Joe lives in the Woodside Park district of Finchley, but owns three houses in Watford which he has had converted into flats for letting. In the summer he plays a lot of tennis, and he also enjoys golf and squash.

In the light of our present League position, Joe puts personal ambitions aside. "All I want is Spurs to stay in the First Division", he says.

Kinnear's total of League appearances stands at 192. He has also made 62 appearances in the F.A. Cup, League Cup, European Cup-winners' Cup and E.U.F.A. Cup. His two League goals for Spurs were scored at Leicester in August, 1967, and at Newcastle in August, 1972.

MOORGATE DISASTER. A match in aid of the Moorgate Disaster Fund will be held on Sunday, 18th May at the Wood Green Town F.C. ground in White Hart Lane, N.17, between the Mayor of Harringey's XI and the Ex-Spurs All-Stars XI, kick-off 3 p.m. Admission by programme only, price 20p.

THE OTHER TEAMS

Spurs Reserves were good winners by 4-0 over Southampton in the Football Combination here last Saturday, and have now lost only two of their last 16 games. This afternoon they are away to Luton Town.

All the goals against Southampton were scored in the second half. The first was headed through by Steve Walford after Glenn Hoddle had chipped the ball to the far post. Then Neil McNab hit a blinding diagonal shot in from the left for Noel Brotherston to run in to net Spurs' second goal.

Brotherston then scored again with a good header from a cross from the left and Chris McGrath finished off the scoring with a shot from about 20 yards.

Spurs could have scored more goals, but Southampton were not idle, and Barry Daines made a number of good saves.

Team: Daines; Smith, Stead, M., Barwick, Walford, Margerrison, Brotherston, Hoddle, Chivers, McGrath and McNab.

YOUTH HELD

The Youth team were held to a 1-1 draw by Orient at Cheshunt in the South-East Counties League, Div. 1 last Saturday.

We were a goal behind at half-time, but Keith Barrett equalised late in the game after good work by Terry Boyle. A draw was a fair result. Team: Cranstone; G. Lucas, M. Cleaver, K. Barrett, Boyle, Cavanagh, Hyams, Bradbury, K. Stead, Robinson and Bacon (sub. P. Van Gelder).

Spurs Youth team defeated Chelsea 3-0 in the Southern Junior Floodlit Cup at Stamford Bridge on Tuesday evening. Glenn Hoddle scored in the 16th minute and second-half goals were added by Noel Brotherston and Neil McNab. Chelsea's John Webberley hit the post with a penalty kick in the 35th minute. Team: Cranstone; Smith, Stead, M., Boyle, Walford, Cavanagh, Brotherston, Barwick (sub. M. Cleaver), Hoddle, Robinson and McNab.

Spurs Juniors qualified for the final of the S.E. Counties League Div. II Cup by defeating Chelsea here 2-1 on Monday. Steve Cavanagh and Barry Pace scored in the first half for Spurs, and John Webberley converted a penalty for Chelsea in the 80th minute. Team: Markwick, P. Van Gelder, M. Cleaver, Barwick, Boyle, Cavanagh, Bradbury, G. Lucas, K. Stead, B. Pace and Hyams (sub. T. King).

APPRENTICES

Terry Boyle and Lee Bowman were added to our staff of apprentice professionals last week and we wish them both every success.

Boyle, now lodging at Enfield with Stuart Beavon, is a Welshman from Llanelli. A centre-half, he captained the Welsh Schoolboy international team, and also played centre at rugby for Llanelli Boys' Grammar School.

Bowman was born at Hackney and still lives there. He attended the Hackney Free School and played for Hackney Boys. A midfield player, he has appeared regularly in our junior team this season.

PETER MURPHY

It was with the deepest regret that we learned last week of the sudden death, at the age of 53, of PETER MURPHY, the inside-forward who joined Spurs from Coventry City in the summer of 1950.

Peter, who lived in Coventry, played 25 League matches for Spurs in our championship-winning season of 1950-51, and made a further 13 First Division appearances before moving to Birmingham City in January, 1952. He scored 14 League goals for Spurs.

Peter, who was employed as a free trade representative for the Davenport Brewery, maintained an active interest in League football, and had been a spectator at the F.A. Cup semi-final between Birmingham and Fulham in Sheffield only the day before his death.

ARSENAL SEATS All numbered and reserved seats for our match at Arsenal next Saturday have been sold. There will, however, be approximately 5,200 unreserved seats at £1 each available on payment at the turnstiles on the day of the match.

The Reserve match with Arsenal here next Saturday will kick off at 11 a.m.

Second-half goals by Trevor King and Barry Pace gave Spurs Juniors a 2-0 away win over Orient in the S.E. Counties League Div. 2 last Saturday. Team: Kendall; K. Ducker, K. Hillsden, J. Avis, S. Garnar, Beavon, T. King, Bowman, B. Pace, M. Thorn and S. McDonagh.
