Curtain Up

THIS AFTERNOON the curtain rings up on another League season, and we extend a warm welcome to all our supporters on the opening day of 1972-73.

With three pre-season "friendly" matches and more than a month's training now behind us, there has been plenty of activity. It is this afternoon's match that really matters, however, and the most fitting reward for all the hard work put in by the players and management would be a win against Coventry City, our first opponents in the new League campaign.

We are faced by Midland opposition in our first competitive game, and also in the three League fixtures that follow.

Next Wednesday evening we line up at West Bromwich, and next Saturday we return to Staffordshire to play Wolverhampton Wanderers. As Birmingham City are our visitors on Wednesday week, we will have played the four First Division clubs from the Greater Birmingham area in our first four fixtures.

The coincidence is carried further by the fact that we played Aston Villa, the other big Birmingham club, at Villa Park in a pre-season game last week.

NEW CONTROL Coventry's change at managerial level has made big news this summer. As all the football world knows, Mr. Joe Mercer has taken over as the club's new general manager, and Mr. Gordon Milne is the new team manager.

Joe, formerly manager of Manchester City, Aston Villa and Sheffield United, was an English international wing-half with Everton, and he played for both the Merseyside club, and later Arsenal, on this ground.

Gordon, also a former England wing-half, has played here for both Preston North End and Liverpool. He finished his career as a League player with Blackpool, and was manager of Wigan Athletic prior to his appointment at Coventry.

We wish Joe and Gordon well with Coventry . . . AFTER today's match!

LAST SEASON Coventry were last here as recently as Good Friday. It was not a great match, and a goalless draw seemed likely until Martin Chivers cracked home a great shot following a free-kick by John Pratt.

Earlier in the game Spurs had come close to scoring. Chivers crashed the bar with a free-kick, and Martin Peters had hit a post.

There should be a much faster tempo today. We need a good start to the season ourselves, and Coventry, with their new regime, will be just as keen to start on the right foot.

ASTON VILLA v SPURS

Alan Gilzean leaps above the Villa defenders to head for goal, in the pre-season friendly match at Villa Park.

MAN IN THE MIDDLE

The man in charge today is Mr. Arthur Jones from Aughton, near Ormskirk, Lancashire.

Mr. Jones, who was President of the Association of Football League Referees and Linesmen in 1969, started refereeing in the Liverpool Boys' Association in 1950.

He graduated through the Liverpool League, the Liverpool County Football Combination and the Central League to the Football League line in 1959. Three years later he became a League referee.

As a linesman, Mr. Jones has officiated in Under-23 internationals, and in Youth and full international matches.

He is employed as a buying controller, and includes gymnastics among his hobbies.

CLUB HANDBOOK

The Club Handbook for 1972-73 is on sale here on the ground today, and it is a publication that will interest every supporter.

In addition to the usual wealth of information, the Handbook includes a Foreword by the Chairman, Mr. Sidney A. Wale, and a photographic section spanning last season.

The Handbook costs 12p or by post 15p. It is an up-to-date work of reference that will prove of value to everyone interested in Spurs.

ADVERTISING

The appearance of advertisements on the ground this season will probably come as a surprise to many supporters as it represents a breakaway from firm Club policy over approximately 50 years.

There is a sound reason for the change. With the growth in television coverage of matches these last few years, the income to be derived from this form of advertising has reached a proportion that cannot be ignored if the general interests of the Club both now and in the future are to be served.

QUIZ-TIME

1. A former Coventry centre-forward has been transferred from one Third Division club to another this summer. Who is he?
2. Coventry were at one time managed by an ex-goalkeeper who had played in an F.A. Cup Final. Can you name him?
3. Coventry were promoted to the First Division in 1967. Which club won promotion with them?
4. Who were the losers in last season's Football League Cup Final?
5. Can you name the forward who was transferred from Coventry to Queen's Park Rangers last season?

The answers will be found on page 13

THE MEN OF COVENTRY

BILL GLAZIER (Goalkeeper). A former England Under-23 player who made his name with Crystal Palace. Left Palace for Coventry in December, 1964. Born in Nottingham, and joined Palace after a short spell as a youngster with Torquay United. Broke a leg at Easter, 1965.

MICK COOP (Defender). Comes from Grimsby and joined Coventry straight from school in 1965. Made his League debut as an 18-year-old during season 1966-67. Made 13 League appearances last season and did well this summer on Coventry's tour. A speedy defender who likes to overlap.

CHRIS CATTLIN (Defender). Signed from Huddersfield Town in March, 1968. Another of Coventry's England Under-23 players. Born at Milnrow in Lancashire, and was an amateur with Burnley before taking the professional plunge with Huddersfield.

DENNIS MORTIMER (Midfield). Comes from the Kirkby district of Liverpool, where he attended the Brookfield Comprehensive School. Played for Kirkby Boys, and on leaving school scrapped the idea of an apprenticeship in engineering for an apprenticeship with Coventry. Captained Coventry against Spurs in the F.A. Youth Cup Final three seasons ago.

JEFF BLOCKLEY (Half-back). Born at Leicester, and a former Leicester District and Leicestershire County Schools star. Graduated through Coventry's apprentice ranks, and last season was honoured by selection for the Football League versus the Scottish League.

ROY BARRY (Half-back). Signed from Dunfermline Athletic in October, 1969. A Scot from Edinburgh, who played for Hearts before Dunfermline. Fractured a leg against Sheffield Wednesday in March, 1970, but returned to Coventry's League team for the final match of season 1970-71.

Jeff Blockley

ERNIE MACHIN (Midfield). A Bolton man, who played for Farnworth Boys before signing for Nelson. Signed for Coventry on his 17th birthday, and made his League debut for the club in the Third Division in season 1963-64.

QUINTON YOUNG (Forward). Born at Irburne in Scotland and joined Coventry from Ayr United in July 1971. A former Scottish Under-23 player, who also worked as a miner when playing for Ayr. It was not easy for Young to adapt himself to the extra pace of English football in his first season with Coventry, but he made 21 first-team appearances, scoring two goals.

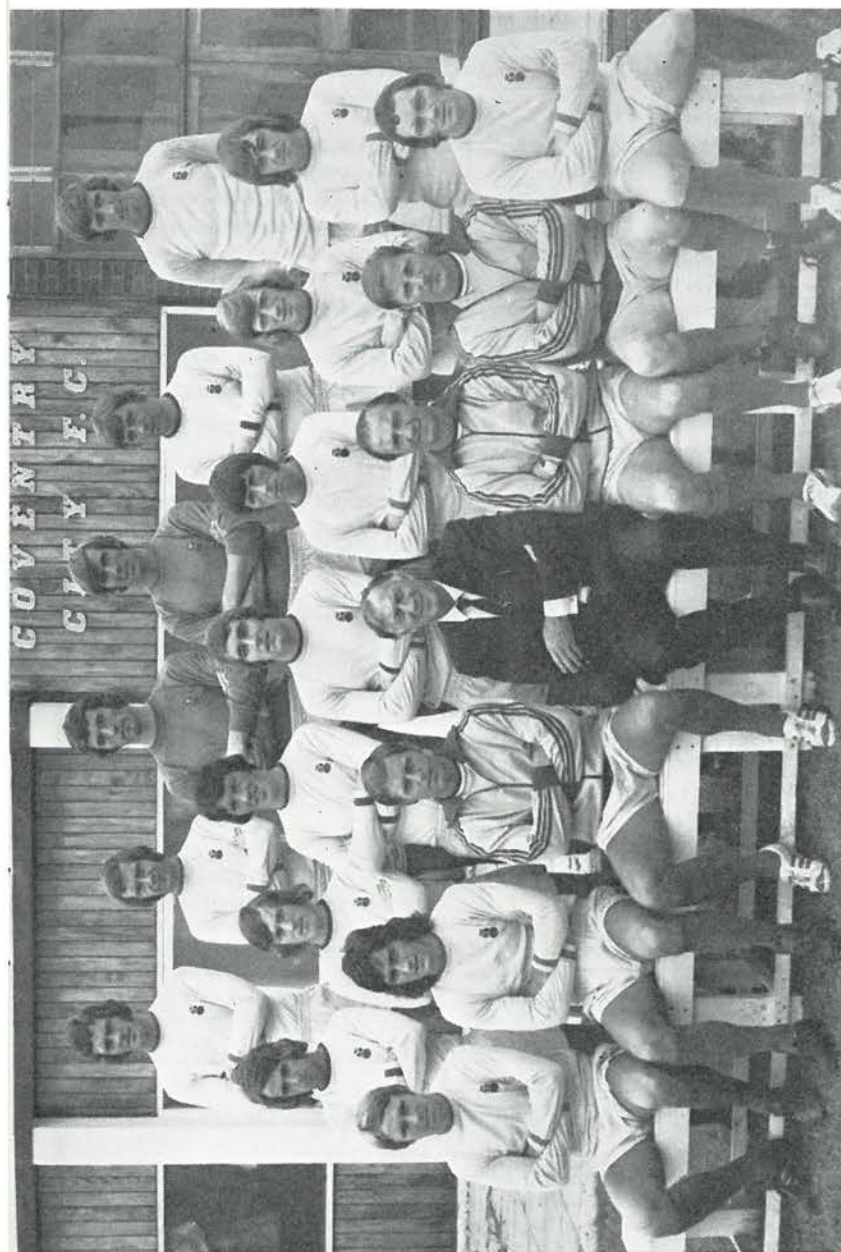

Ernie Machin

ERNIE HUNT (Forward). Joined Coventry from Everton in March, 1968. Born at Swindon, and started his career with the Swindon Town club. Transferred from Swindon to Wolverhampton Wanderers, and in September, 1967 made the further move to Everton.

WILLIE CARR (Forward). Born in Glasgow, and a full Scottish international. Came south to Cambridge in his schooldays, and joined Coventry as an apprentice. Has been a full professional since July, 1967. Scored the Coventry goal that beat us at Highfield Road last season.

BOBBY GRAHAM (Forward). Signed from Liverpool just before the transfer deadline last March. Broke a leg playing for Liverpool against Chelsea in season 1970-71, but was back in the Anfield line-up before the campaign was over. Born at Motherwell, and joined Liverpool as a junior.

FULL PRO.

In June Keith Osgood, who played regularly in our Youth team defence last season, was upgraded from apprentice to full professional. Keith, who was a Schoolboy international, comes from Isleworth, and had been on apprentice forms for a year.

Several new apprentices have joined the Club this summer. Ian Cranstone is a goalkeeper, who lives at Hullbridge in Essex, and has played for the South-East Essex Boys team. Midfield player Konrad Powley is another former member of the S.E. Essex team. He lives at Rayleigh, and like Cranstone, signed apprentice forms last month.

Others are Ian Smith and Wayne Cegielski, both defenders, and Garry Bacon, a midfield player. Smith comes from Rotherham, and played for Yorkshire County Boys, while Cegielski, from Blackwood in Monmouthshire, has played for Tredegar Boys.

Bacon, who lives at Barking, toured the U.S.A. with the Barking Boys team this summer.

COVENTRY MEMORIES . . .

TODAY'S MATCH is the 27th between Spurs and Coventry in the Football League. Sixteen of the games played were in Division 2, and the last 10 have been in the First.

There have not been enough matches to provide a wealth of reminiscence, but the first clash between the teams in a First Division match at Highfield Road in October, 1967 will be remembered by many supporters.

It was a game full of incident, and Spurs were off to a splendid start with goals from Cliff Jones and Jimmy Greaves.

Coventry hit back for Ron Rees to score, and further pressure from the Sky Blues early in the second half brought an equaliser from the same player.

Then came a tense struggle for the winner. Pat Jennings made a fine save from John Tudor, and from his clearance Greaves finished off a good move to clinch the game for Spurs.

The attendance at Coventry that day was 37,998 and the teams were:

COVENTRY: Glazier; Coop, Hill; Morrissey, Knapp, Clements; Lewis (sub. Carr), Machin, Tudor, Gibson and Rees.

SPURS: Jennings; Kinnear, Knowles; Mullery, England, Beal; Robertson, Greaves, Gilzean, Venables and Jones.

Coventry have one victory over us on this ground to their credit. It was in March, 1970 after Martin Peters, making his debut as a Spurs player, had given us an early lead.

Neil Martin equalised with a header in the second half, and John O'Rourke grabbed a late winner for Coventry.

NO GOALS

Old names revive old memories, and it may interest some supporters to know that today's is not the first occasion on which Coventry have opened the League season here. It happened way back in 1937, when we were both in the Second Division.

There were no goals, and it was not a distinguished game. Hard ground and a light ball were handicaps to both teams, particularly when attacking.

Moreover, Jack Hall and Bill Morgan, the two goalkeepers, were in such good form that there never seemed much chance of a goal. The teams that day will stir memories for the old-timers:

SPURS: Hall, J.; Ward, Whatley; Spelman, Page, Buckingham; McCormick, Hall, G. W., Morrison, Duncan and Sargent.

COVENTRY: Morgan; Astley, Metcalf; Frith, Mason, Archer; Brown, Jones, McPhee, MacDonald and Pearson.

Much further back in time, Coventry was the starting point for one of the most momentous seasons in Spurs' history. On the opening day in August, 1919, we won 5-0 at Highfield Road, and won the return match here the following Saturday by 4-1.

That was the season we won the Second Division championship with 70 points.

JET TRIP

In connection with the first-leg match of our U.E.F.A. Cup-tie against Lyn (Oslo) in Norway on 13th September, 4S Sports, in conjunction with Spurs Supporters Club, will operate a two-day jet trip for £36. The outward flight would be on the morning of the 13th, returning to Gatwick on the following evening.

Booking forms are available from 4S Sports, 64/78 Kingsway, WC2B 6AS, or from Spurs Supporters Club, Warmington House, High Road, N.17. We hope to publish fuller details in a later programme.

Jimmy Greaves

AWAY FROM IT ALL . . .

THERE WAS NOT a lot of time between the end of our trip to Israel in June and the return to training in mid-July.

Most of our players were quick to seek the sun, however, and ever-popular Majorca was the choice of Roger Morgan, Jimmy Pearce and John Pratt. Roger also squeezed in a stay on the Isle of Wight.

Jimmy Neighbour, married in June, chose Es Cana on the Island of Ibiza for a honeymoon. Joe Kinnear, once he was free of his Eire commitments in Brazil, was off to Denia on the Costa Blanca.

Cyril Knowles also spent two weeks on the Costa Blanca, plus another three in Malta. Joe spent some of his time with Ralph Coates, who was staying not far away at Calpe, near Benidorm.

Ralph couldn't forget football. Walking down the main street in Calpe he came face to face with Arthur Bellamy, his old forward colleague at Burnley.

Martin Peters spent his family holiday on the Algarve coast of Portugal, the spot he also chose last year, and found Don Revie, the Leeds manager, staying in the same hotel.

It was also a repeat of last year's holiday for Philip Beal. He and his close friend, Mike Doyle of Manchester City, again spent a fortnight at Bournemouth with their families.

MARATHON

Ray Evans spent a week at Marathon in Greece—is that a hint of another long series of matches?—and also relaxed at Great Yarmouth. Mike England took a cottage on Alderney in the Channel Islands, and returned a day early in order to play cricket for Broxbourne.

Martin Chivers was busy moving house but managed to visit relatives in Cologne, while Pat Jennings could find time only to visit Newry, where his second daughter, Ciara, was born in May.

Alan Gilzean went back home to Perth, where he played plenty of golf, and Barry Daines showed a spirit of enterprise by travelling around alone in Rome, Naples and Corfu.

Terry Lee spent six weeks in Spain, some of it at Lloret de Mar and the rest at Pamplona.

Some of our players relaxed a lot nearer home. Peter Collins stayed at Woolacombe; Terry Naylor chose Hastings, where he met up with Newcastle's Malcolm Macdonald; and Phil Holder settled for Sandown, Isle of Wight.

Joe Peck stayed on the shores of Lake Windermere, and Eddie Jones chose St. Ives in Cornwall.

Steve Perryman, after an interesting tour with the England Under-23s, including a moment of concern in Moscow when his visa was found to be unstamped, spent a holiday with relatives at Gosport.

Manager Bill Nicholson stayed on in Israel after the tour match, and also managed a few days in his native Scarborough. Assistant-manager Eddie Bailly spurned Southend this year in favour of Lisbon.

BUSY SUMMER

Graeme Souness and Mike Dillon, our Reserve players, had a busy and different summer from the rest of their clubmates.

Graeme and Mike spent the close-season weeks playing for Montreal Olympic, and both enjoyed the experience immensely.

Souness occupied his usual midfield position, but Dillon played at centre-forward in a team composed of players of various nationalities.

Graeme and Mike shared a flat, and took every opportunity of studying the way of life in Montreal. "It was all a great experience," says Dillon. "We met a lot of people, and I feel it has broadened my outlook. Life is a lot different over there, and the French influence is very strong."

Mike doesn't rate their soccer standard particularly high. He thinks Spurs' Combination side would beat most of the teams.

Pre-season Round-up

Bournemouth 2, Spurs 4 Spurs were good winners of the first pre-season match on 29th July at Bournemouth. Jimmy Pearce gave us a half-time lead, and Joe Kinnear netted a second after the break.

A goal by Phil Boyer for Bournemouth was followed by a penalty converted by Martin Peters. Jimmy Gabriel then scored a second for Bournemouth, and a late goal by Steve Perryman after good work by Pearce left Spurs winners by 4-2.

Team: Jennings; Kinnear, Knowles, Naylor, England, Beal, Gilzean, Perryman, Coates, Peters and Pearce.

Aston Villa 0, Spurs 0 Our display was disappointing against Aston Villa at Villa Park on Wednesday evening of last week. Jimmy Cumbes, Villa's goalkeeper, made a fine save from Jimmy Pearce in the 11th minute, but the home side were more dangerous as an attacking force.

For the second half Ralph Coates took over from Terry Naylor, and Roger Morgan replaced Pearce.

Team: Jennings; Kinnear, Evans, Naylor (sub. Coates), England, Beal, Gilzean, Perryman, Chivers, Peters and Pearce (sub. Morgan).

Celtic 1, Spurs 0. We were given a good work-out by Celtic at Parkhead on Monday night. The only goal of the game was scored in the 67th minute by Tom Callaghan for Celtic. Taken over the 90 minutes the Scots were worth their narrow win. Spurs failed to take a number of goalscoring chances, particularly in the closing minutes.

Team: Jennings; Kinnear, Knowles, Coates, England, Beal, Gilzean, Perryman, Chivers, Peters and Pratt.

NEWCOMERS

Birmingham City and Norwich City, promoted at the end of last season, are the newcomers to our League fixture list.

We have, of course, had many tussles at First Division level with Birmingham in the past, but our only meetings with Norwich have been in the Second Division and F.A. Cup. Birmingham are our next opponents here, but Norwich are not due on this ground until March.

FLASHBACK

TO 10 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK-END

Spurs, F.A. Cup-holders, were away to Ipswich Town, the reigning League champions, in the F.A. Charity Shield.

Spurs were comfortable winners to the tune of 5-1, but our first goal, scored by Jimmy Greaves, was delayed until the 37th minute. Just before half-time Bobby Smith netted our second.

Greaves was again on the scoring mark early in the second half, and John White then headed through to make it 4-0. A goal from Roy Stephenson, their outside-right, gave the Ipswich crowd something to shout about, but Terry Medwin drove home a fifth goal for Spurs from a pass by Greaves in the closing minutes.

IPSWICH: Bailey; Carberry, Compton; Baxter, Nelson, Elsworth; Stephenson, Moran, Crawford, Phillips and Leadbetter.

SPURS: Brown; Baker, Henry; Blanchflower, Norman, Mackay; Medwin, White, Smith, R., Greaves and Jones.

DEPARTURES

A number of last season's players are now wearing new colours, and the outstanding departure from Spurs has, of course, been Alan Mullery, who is now with Fulham.

Alan Mullery

We were reluctant to part with Alan, but it was his own emphatic wish that he should leave the Club. He had enjoyed a successful career with Spurs, and preferred to leave while still at the top, and with pleasant memories of his final matches for Spurs still fresh in all our minds.

It was from Fulham that we signed Mullery in 1964, and we place on record our appreciation of his good work on the field during his eight-year spell with Spurs, as well as his captaincy.

John Cutbush also has joined Fulham, and Tony Want is now with Birmingham City. Other Spurs players of last season now with new clubs are David Jenkins (Brentford) and Roy Woolcott (Chelmsford City).

We wish each of them every success in their new colours.

RAIL AND COACH TRAVEL

In connection with our away match with West Bromwich next Wednesday, British Rail will run a special train at a day return fare of £1.75 (adults) and £1 (children of 3 and under 14). Departure time from Euston will be 16.45 arriving Smethwick (Rolfe St.) at 18.30. The return time from Smethwick (Rolfe St.) will be 21.40, arriving Euston 23.32. The kick-off time is 7.30 p.m.

British Rail will also run a special train to Wolverhampton for our match there next Saturday, k.o. 3 p.m. The fares are the same as for the West Bromwich match. Departure time from Euston will be 11.30, arriving Wolverhampton at 13.40, and departing Wolverhampton at 17.30, arriving Euston at 19.27.

Tickets for these trains will only be available at Euston Station, and may be purchased in advance. No buffet car facilities will be available on these trains.

Horseshoe Coaches (formerly Henry Coaches) will operate a service to our League match at West Bromwich at a return fare of £1.15, leaving Broad Lane, N.15 at 14.30 and Whitehall Street (opposite ground) at 14.45. For the match at Wolverhampton coaches will leave Broad Lane at 09.15 and Whitehall Street at 09.30 Fare £1.25. For further details telephone 01-888 8326.
