Congratulations, Stoke

IN EXTENDING our usual cordial welcome to Stoke City, our visitors this afternoon, we also offer them our heartiest congratulations on reaching the Final of the Football League Cup, to be played at Wembley in a fortnight's time.

It is still a matter of acute disappointment to everyone associated with Tottenham Hotspur that our players will not be lining up against Stoke at Wembley next month.

We all know how close we came to a second successive League Cup Final appearance. In the first leg of our Semi-final against Chelsea at Stamford Bridge we were leading up to the 74th minute. Then came the Chelsea rally that left us beaten 3-2, and a last-minute goal in the second leg on this ground last month enabled the West Londoners to retain their winning margin, and so reach the Final. If Spurs had qualified, this afternoon's League match would have provided a fascinating preview of the Wembley Final.

Football is full of "ifs" and "near-misses", however, and the reality of today's situation is that we face Stoke determined to add two more points to our total after winning our last two League matches.

Stoke are below us on the chart, but when we played them in the Potteries in October, we were beaten 2-0. A couple of goals early in the second half settled the match in Stoke's favour.

FIRST "DOUBLE"

In beating Nottingham Forest 1-0 at the City Ground last Saturday, Spurs pulled off a League "double" for the first time this season. We had defeated Forest here 6-1 in October.

It was a poor first half, but Spurs showed a lot of improvement after the break. We seemed much more likely to score, and the only goal of the game, netted by Martin Peters after 58 minutes, was a gem.

It all started with a bad back pass by Forest's Jim McIntosh. The ball travelled straight to Martin Chivers, who pulled the ball out to the left before playing it to Alan Gilzean.

John Cottam blocked Gilzean's shot, and the ball flew out to Cyril Knowles, who brought it under control before fighting an excellent cross. As the ball was in flight Peters was already moving towards the near post, and although it was an awkward chance for him, he hooked it delicately into the net.

Forest were not idle, and for a time they put us under pressure. Spurs came back into the game, however, and came close to scoring on three occasions.

Gilzean hammered over a cross from which Peters headed wide, and the former headed down for Chivers, but Jim Barron, Forest's goalkeeper, smothered the ball. It was Gilzean again who provided a chance that Roger Morgan might have taken.

Phil Holder did well in his first full League match. He controlled his game well in midfield, and his passing reached a good standard.

Team: Jennings; Evans, Knowles, Coates, England, Beal, Gilzean, Holder, Chivers, Peters and Morgan. Terry Naylor stood by as substitute.

TODAY'S VISITORS

STOKE CITY

STOKE'S success in reaching the Final of the Football League Cup, and particularly their triumph over West Ham United in the Semi-final, has added considerable stature to the name of several of their players.

One whose fame is such that he needs no extra spur of this kind is, of course, Gordon Banks, Stoke's world-famous English international goalkeeper.

Banks is a star attraction wherever he plays. He is a Sheffield man, who started his career with Chesterfield, but reached the peak of his performance with Leicester City. In 1967 he was transferred from Leicester to Stoke.

Right-back Jack Marsh is a local Stoke discovery. He was born in the Potteries, made his mark in the Stoke Boys' team, and joined the City club as soon as he left school.

Marsh made his League debut four seasons ago, and is now an established first-team player.

Mike Pejic, who usually wears the No. 3 shirt for Stoke, is another local product. He was born in the Chesterton district of Stoke.

MATTHEWS FAN

If Mick Bernard had not been a fan of Sir Stanley Matthews, the former winger and idol of Stoke, he may never have signed for the Potters.

Bernard, who is now a key man in midfield, comes from Shrewsbury, and played for the Shrewsbury Boys' team. Shrewsbury Town wanted him, and Wolverhampton, Cardiff and Aston Villa also were interested.

Matthews was then at Stoke, and the glamour the old England star added to the scene influenced Bernard in his choice of club.

Centre-half Denis Smith is another of Stoke's local discoveries.

He made his League debut three seasons ago, and has been compared in performance to Neil Franklin, the club's former English international centre-half.

Other back-four players are Eric Skeels, Alan Bloor and Stuart Jump.

FROM ECCLES

Skeels, who comes from the Eccles district of Manchester, is now in his 13th season with Stoke. As a youngster he had a season as an amateur with Stockport County.

Bloor is another of the Potters' local Stoke-born players. A man of long experience, Bloor first appeared in Stoke's League team in season 1961-62.

Jump is a comparative newcomer. A Manchester man, he was introduced to the League team last season after emerging from Stoke's youth side.

John Mahoney and Peter Dobing are generally regarded as midfield men. Mahoney, a Welsh international, was born in Cardiff, and was transferred to Stoke from Crewe Alexandra in March, 1967.

Dobing is one of the best-known players in the game. A Manchester man, he was a star with Blackburn Rovers and Manchester City before joining Stoke.

STRIKING FORCE

Terry Conroy, John Ritchie and George Eastham are all strikers of repute.

Conroy is an Eire international, who formerly played for Glentoran, the Irish League club, and has been with Stoke since March, 1967.

Ritchie is in his second spell with the Potters. He is a Kettering man, who played for Kettering before joining Stoke the first time. After moving to Sheffield Wednesday in 1966, he returned to Stoke in 1969.

Eastham needs no introduction. An English international, he was a star with Arsenal and Newcastle United before signing for Stoke.

Jimmy Greenhoff is the former Birmingham City and Leeds United forward. A Yorkshireman from Barnsley, he joined Stoke from Birmingham in August, 1969.

OLD SPUR...

A welcome visitor to our Cup-tie with Rotherham a fortnight ago was Vic Buckingham, who made his League debut for Spurs in a home match with Bury in November, 1935.

Vic developed through our pre-war Northfleet nursery, and by the time war broke out in 1939, he had 114 League appearances to his credit, including the three games that were expunged from the records when normal football was brought to an abrupt halt.

By the time normal football restarted in 1946, Vic, who had served in the R.A.F. during the war, had switched to left-back, and he went on to make 93 more League appearances for Spurs.

Since retiring as a player, he has become a much-travelled man. He has managed Bradford Park Avenue, West Bromwich, Sheffield Wednesday, Ajax of Holland for two spells, Fulham, Ethnikos of Greece and Barcelona. Since an operation for a back injury sustained while coaching the Barcelona players last year, Vic has been back in the London area, but he expects to take up a new assignment in Greece in April.

When we asked Vic to recall the highlight of his playing days with Spurs, he responded with the kind of humorous comment that is typical of him. "I had a highlight at the end of each season... getting retained for the next one!" said Vic.

He always enjoys a return visit to White Hart Lane. "No ex-player could be treated better", was Vic's enthusiastic comment.

RESERVES HELD

Spurs Res. 0, Norwich City Res. 0

After winning 11 Football Combination matches in succession, the Reserves were held to a goalless draw here last Saturday by Norwich.

Naturally, a home draw against such a lowly Combination team was a disappointing result from our point of view, but it would have been a different story if we had snapped up a number of scoring chances in the opening minutes.

Peter Collins headed on to the bar from a corner, and Jimmy Neighbour and Roy Woolcott both failed to score.

Norwich forced their way into the game, and on two occasions Joe Peck saved us by clearing from the goal-line. We also had a narrow shave when Steve Grapes of Norwich hit our upright in the closing minutes.

Spurs had more of the game than Norwich, but the better scoring chances fell to the visitors. Team: Daines; Jones, E., Pratt, Dillon, Collins, Peck, Pearce, Clarke, Woolcott, Souness and Neighbour.

SINGLE-GOAL DEFEAT

Spurs Youth 0, Fulham Youth 1

After eight successive victories in the S.E. Counties League, Division 1,

Spurs Youth team lost to Fulham by the only goal of the match at Cheshunt last Saturday.

Fulham had the better of a shoddy first half, and a number of goalscoring opportunities fell to the visitors. Spurs were more in the game after half-time, and a number of chances came our way.

Although we do not deny that Fulham deserved their win, it was ironical that their goal should have been scored in the last minute after Spurs had begun to find their touch.

Danny Clapton, Keith Osgood and Gary Mabey all went close to scoring.

John Fitzpatrick, who has played regularly for the Juniors this season, made his first appearance in the Youth team, and had quite a good match.

Team: J. Fitzpatrick; Boughey, Anderson, J. Field, Osgood, D. Ishmail, Cook (sub. Scarth), Margerison, Mabey, Clapton and Jones, C.

Bobby Scarth replaced John Cook for the last 17 minutes.

FULL PRO.

Danny Clapton, who has been a regular member of our Youth team this season, has now been upgraded from apprentice to full professional. Danny, a nephew of the former Arsenal and England outside-right of the same name, was born in Hackney, and as a schoolboy he played for East London, London, Middlesex and England.

He joined us as an apprentice in May, 1970. In Youth matches this season he has made 26 appearances for Spurs, and has scored 10 goals, four from the penalty spot.

We wish him every success.

EVERTON NEXT

Next Saturday we are back on the F.A. Cup trail at Everton . . . It's strange that we were due there in the League next week-end anyway . . . In the Fourth Round Everton beat Walsall in a home tie by 2-1 . . . When Spurs last visited Everton, in the League last season, the result was a goalless draw . . . Our last Cup clash with Everton was in the Fifth Round at Goodison Park in 1950, when we lost 1-0 . . . Alan Ball, who has since been transferred to Arsenal, captained Everton when they were here in November . . . Last season we were knocked out of the competition by Everton's Merseyside rivals, Liverpool . . . Everton drew 0-0 at home to Leeds United last Saturday . . . Last Season Everton reached the Semi-final of the F.A. Cup, when they lost 2-1 to Liverpool at Old Trafford . . . Last week Everton signed Bernard Wright, the Walsall forward.

FLASHBACK

TO 10 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK-END

Spurs were away to West Bromwich Albion in the Fifth Round of the F.A. Cup, and finished winners by 4-2 before a crowd of 55,000.

In a thrilling and entertaining game, Bobby Smith gave Spurs an early lead, and the same player added a second just before half-time, when he ran on to a long pass from Ron Henry to drive the ball past Jock Wallace, Albion's goalkeeper.

Three minutes after half-time Keith Smith scored for Albion, but Jimmy Greaves restored the margin for Spurs from a pass by Smith. A header by Derek Kevan produced a second goal for Albion, but one minute from the end Greaves threaded his way through the home defence to curve the ball into the net for Spurs' fourth.

That season Spurs went on to win the Cup by beating Burnley at Wembley.

The teams at West Bromwich were:

ALBION: Wallace; Howe, Williams; Robson, Jones, Drury; Jackson, Burnside, Smith, Kevan and Clark.

SPURS: Brown; Baker, Henry; Blanchflower, Norman, Mackay; Medwin, White, Smith, Greaves and Jones.

NEW BOOK

"The Battle of London" by Rex Pardoe, published by Tom Stacey Ltd., at £1.90, is a book we can recommend to all Spurs supporters.

This book blazes an entirely new trail. The author tells the full story of the rivalry between Spurs and Arsenal, and produces a wealth of detail from the pioneer days of both clubs to the events of last season.

Facts are given on every League and Cup match between Spurs and Arsenal, and the book threads its way through the triumphs and disappointments of both clubs.

Memories of past European matches are revived in a lively fashion, and the book contains many interesting photographs spanning the years.

This book, and many others of interest to Spurs' supporters, is available for purchase at the Spurs Shop, 752c High Road, Tottenham, N.17.
