A Team with Crowd Appeal

THE visit of Liverpool has become one of the biggest attractions here for several years, and in welcoming our friends and rivals from Merseyside this afternoon, we anticipate a first-class match, replete with thrills and good football.

Liverpool have a good record in the League, and they are in the happy position of having overcome Ferencvaros of Hungary in the First Round of the Fairs Cup.

Last season Liverpool finished fifth in the First Division. This was three rungs lower than in the previous season, when Liverpool were runners-up to Leeds United, the champions.

To our way of thinking, this in no way represents a Liverpool slump. The Anfielders have some good performances to their credit this season, and our players will need to be at their best to pull off a win today.

No-one can predict the result of a match with any real confidence, but we can be sure of a tense and exciting atmosphere today. Liverpool have crowd appeal, and we are hopeful that today's gate will be the highest since our opening home match of the season.

It is a feather in Liverpool's cap that the biggest crowd for a League match here last season was on the occasion of their visit on the second Saturday of the campaign, when the figure was 50,474.

The fact that it was our first Saturday home match of that season undoubtedly had some influence on the crowd figure, but it is not without significance that the gate of 44,122 when Liverpool were here in October, 1968, was the smallest attendance for this particular fixture over the last five seasons.

TIGHT DEFENCE

In League matches Liverpool have proved tight in defence away from home, and the five they have played on opponents' grounds to date, show a goals against figure of only three.

Liverpool's only away defeat in the League was by the only goal of the match at Southampton a fortnight ago. Here are the results, with goal-scorers, of their other four away League games:

Burnley (Evans, Hughes)	2-1
Blackpool	0-0
West Bromwich Albion (Evans)	1-1
Newcastle United	0-0

In their opening League Cup match, Liverpool were held to a goal-less draw at Mansfield, but won the replay after extra time by 3-2, their goals being scored by Emlyn Hughes, Alun Evans and Tommy Smith (penalty). Their 2-0 defeat at Swindon on Tuesday, however, was one of the shock results of the Third Round.

In the Fairs Cup, Bobby Graham scored the only goal of the match for Liverpool in the home leg, and Hughes was their scorer in the 1-1 draw in the away leg with Ferencvaros. In the next round Liverpool face Dinamo Bucharest of Rumania.

HOME RECORD

At home Liverpool have played five League matches, and have dropped only two points in two drawn games. Here is their record:

Huddersfield Town
(McLaughlin 2, Evans 2)	4—0
Crystal Palace (Graham)	1—1
Manchester United (Evans)	1—1
Nottingham Forest (Graham,
Evans, Thompson)	3—0
Chelsea (Evans)	1—0

PAST RESULTS

Here are the results of all past meetings in the Football League and F.A. Cup between Spurs and Liverpool. Spurs' score is shown first. All League meetings have been at First Division level.

As our supporters will have read in the press, Graeme Souness, our young Scottish player, has now returned to the club. We now hope he will soon recapture the good form he was showing last season.

REFEREE FOR TODAY

The man in the middle today is Mr. Dennis Turner from Cannock, who is in his third season on the Football League List.

He started refereeing at the age of 18, progressing to the Football League Linesmen's List through the Staffordshire County and West Midlands Leagues, and at 35 is one of the youngest referees in the League.

In 1968 Mr. Turner was one of the officials for a European Cup game in Malta, and this year he was reserve referee for the Anglo-Italian tournament.

A qualified mining engineer, he holds a post as Safety Engineer at Lea Hall Colliery, one of the largest and most modern collieries in the country.

He is married with two daughters, and is interested in club cricket and gardening.

Mr. Turner's last match on this ground was our League fixture with Leeds United last February.

Spurs Juniors beat Orient 5—1 in an away match on Saturday in the S.E. Counties League, Div. 2 Cup.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

1. Who was Spurs' top goal-scorer in the League last season, and what was his total?

2. A full-back was transferred from Liverpool to a London First Division club during the summer. Who is he, and for which club is he now playing?

3. Mr. Bill Shankly, Liverpool's manager, spent his best playing years as a Scottish international wing-half with another Lancashire club. Can you name the club?

4. In which year were Liverpool beaten by Arsenal in the final of the F.A. Cup?

5. Which club defeated Liverpool in the second round of the Fairs Cup last season?

The answers are on Page 14

TODAY'S VISITORS

LIVERPOOL

IF the teams fielded by Liverpool recently can be accepted as a guide, there will be new names in the line-up representing the Merseysiders this afternoon.

When Liverpool were last here, at the beginning of last season, their team still had the old familiar look, with plenty of names long associated with Anfield. Today it is likely that a number of younger players will be wearing the red shirt of Liverpool on this ground for the first time.

Brian Hall, Doug Livermore and John McLaughlin are three forwards whose names are unfamiliar to most southern football followers, but each of these players is establishing himself on Merseyside.

Hall is a Scot from Glasgow, who has been a professional since the summer of 1968. He made his League debut with Liverpool last season.

Livermore and McLaughlin also were introduced to League football last season. Both are Liverpool-born, and joined the Anfield club straight from school.

GOOD GROUNDING

Livermore had a good grounding last season, when he made 14 League appearances, including one as substitute. He has been a professional since November, 1965. McLaughlin was upgraded from apprentice to full pro, in February of last year.

Goalkeeper Ray Clemence is a Skegness man who started his League career with Scunthorpe United. He joined Liverpool in the summer of 1967, and has played for the England Under-23 team. He is named as reserve goalkeeper for the Under-23s against West Germany at Leicester next Wednesday.

Half-back Alec Lindsay—that's a name to stir the memories of the older brigade of Spurs supporters!—was also secured from another League club. He made his name with Bury, his home-town club, and moved to Liverpool in March, 1969.

Full-back Chris Lawler is one of Liverpool's older-established players. He joined the club straight from school in 1959, and made his League debut in 1963. He is another of the club's local-born players.

FROM BRISTOL

Centre-half Larry Lloyd was signed from Bristol Rovers in April, 1969, as the successor to long-serving Ron Yeats. Liverpool are well satisfied with the progress of Lloyd who wins his first England Under-23 cap against West Germany next Wednesday.

Tommy Smith is, of course, one of Anfield's more familiar figures. Mid-field man Smith, yet another Liverpool local, joined the club on leaving school, and made his League debut as long ago as May, 1963.

Smith is a former England Youth and Under-23 player.

Winger Peter Thompson is a full English international, and a member of the World Cup party in Mexico, although he was not selected for the eventual squad.

Jack Whitham is the former Sheffield Wednesday forward. He was signed by Liverpool from Wednesday at the beginning of May.

WORLD CUP SQUAD

Emlyn Hughes, in spite of his name, is also a full English international, and he, too, was in the World Cup squad. Born at Barrow-in-Furness, he started his career with Blackpool, for whom he made his League debut in May, 1966.

Liverpool signed Hughes from Blackpool in February, 1967. Last season he wore the No. 6 shirt in the corresponding match.

Alun Evans, who was carried off injured at Southampton a fortnight ago, is the former Wolverhampton forward. He was born at Bewdley in Worcestershire, and made a big name in Schools and Youth football.

Evans, who was transferred from Wolves to Liverpool in September,

JOE KINNEAR

JOE KINNEAR was a right-half in his schooldays. It was not until he played in a trial for Spurs at Cheshunt that he switched to full-back.

Joe played only in the second half of that trial, but it was the first step on the road to a career in football. He was then serving a five-year apprenticeship as a machine-minder at a printing works.

He abandoned it to sign as a professional in February, 1965, and has never had cause to regret his change of occupation.

Kinnear made his League debut during his first full season as a pro. It was in a home match against West Ham in April, 1966. Joe recalls the great thrill his selection gave him, but it was not a happy day for Spurs. West Ham won 4-1.

Joe was born in the Kimage district of Dublin, but has lived at Watford since he was seven.

Eire's selectors were quick on the draw. Less than a year after his League debut, Joe made his first appearance for his country, against Turkey at Ankara in the European Nations Cup.

EIGHT INTERNATIONALS

Now he can claim eight international appearances, the last of which was against Poland in Warsaw in May.

Joe has experienced the ups and downs of football fortune. A peak moment was at Wembley in 1967, when he received his F.A. Cup-winners' medal after the defeat of Chelsea. His worst moment came two seasons ago against Leeds, when he broke his right leg.

Joe, who is keen on swimming, is single, and still lives with his family at Watford. He drives an M.G.B. GT.

Already, he is looking to his future. A couple of months ago he invested in a property in Watford which he has since had converted into five flats.

Joe's total of League appearances now stands at 97 plus 2 as a substitute. To this figure can be added 30 in the F.A. Cup, League Cup, European Cup-Winners' Cup and Texaco Cup.

1968, is another Anfielder selected for the England Under-23 team next Wednesday.

Bobby Graham, who has done well in attack for Liverpool this season, broke a leg against Chelsea last Saturday, and was replaced by Steve Highway, who is new to League football this season.

Highway, who comes from Dublin, joined Liverpool as a young amateur.

Congratulations to our manager, Mr. Bill Nicholson, on winning the "Manager of the Month" award for September, put up by Bell's Scotch Whisky.

Mr. Nicholson was named as winner following a poll by a panel of 25 leading British football writers.

His award is a cheque for £100, to be presented at the Bell's Scotch whisky Football Managers' awards Luncheon at the end of the season and an inscribed scroll and a gallon of Bell's Scotch whisky which will be presented prior to this afternoon's match.

Mr. Nicholson himself feels that the award is, in fact, a compliment to the players, whose performance on the field has made it possible.

LAST SEASON

Remember Liverpool's visit last season? Spurs were beaten 2-0, and could not complain at the result.

An early goal by Emlyn Hughes had a tonic effect on Liverpool, and the opposite effect on Spurs. Liverpool were much sharper and more purposeful, and we were never really in the hunt after Chris Lawler had hammered home a second goal with a shot that cannoned in off a post.

The teams last season were:

SPURS: Jennings; Want, Knowles; Mullery, England, Collins, P.; Pearce, Greaves, Chivers, Gilzean and Morgan.

LIVERPOOL: Lawrence; Lawler, Strong; Smith, Yeats, Hughes; Callaghan, Hunt, Graham, St. John and Thompson.

Strong is now with Coventry City, and played against us here in August, while Hunt is now with Bolton Wanderers.

As these notes were of necessity written before Wednesday evening's League Cup match with Sheffield United, we have been unable to make any reference to that fixture.

FLASHBACK

TO 20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK-END

Spurs defeated Burnley on this ground by the only goal of the game, scored by Les Medley soon after half-time.

Medley, who was in great form that day, headed through from an accurate centre by Sonny Walters, and Spurs were good value for their narrow win.

Spurs were below strength that day as both Alf Ramsey and Eddie Baily were playing for England against Ireland in Belfast. Baily scored twice in a 4-1 win for England.

As Ronnie Burgess was on the injured list, Bill Nicholson captained Spurs against Burnley. Making his League debut in place of the injured Burgess was Colin Brittan. The gate figure was 46,518.

Team: Ditchburn; Tickridge, Willis; Nicholson, Clarke, Brittan; Walters, Murphy, Duquemin, Bennett and Medley.

LEAGUE BOOK

The Football League Book—Number One is now on sale at 21s. post free direct from the Press Office, Football League, St. Anne's, Lancashire, and is also available for sale at bookshops and club shops at the same price.

Here's how the League's Public Relations Office describes this first official Football League Book:

"A profusely illustrated book which is different, which Dad will snap up as well as junior, and which the lads on the Kop won't want to put down. Packed with pictures and assessments of the stars, it offers unique and informed behind-the-scenes detail and analysis of all last season's top clubs. Where else could you get last season's top players as nominated by The League Club managers, easy to understand Guides to League regulations, chapter and verse on all the many people who make a League club tick, insights into how the fixtures are compiled, how the League pays its bills . . ." etc., etc.

Will supporters planning to attend our away match with West Ham United next Saturday please note that no pre-match bookings can be made, but that a limited number of seats will be available on the day of the game.

For our away match with Nottingham Forest on 31st October, tickets at 12s. will be available two weeks in advance, all applications to be made direct to the Nottingham Forest Club, City Ground, Pavilion Road, West Bridgford, Nottingham, NG2 5FJ. Forest point out that preference is given to personal rather than postal applicants.

For our match at Chelsea on 14th November, tickets at 24s., 16s. and 12s. will be available by post one calendar month in advance, all applications to be made direct to the Chelsea Club, Stamford Bridge Grounds, London, S.W.6.

Spurs' goals record in the League to date is the same at home as away. We have scored eight goals at home and eight away, and conceded four both here and on opponents' grounds.
