Highlight of Season

WITH only one Saturday of October now in the past, we have already had quite a taste of cup football in both the U.E.F.A. and Football League knock-out competitions.

This afternoon we are back to League Football, however, and we could not have more attractive visitors than our rivals and neighbours from Highbury. The visit of Arsenal is always the highlight of our League season, and we extend a cordial welcome to their officials, players and supporters.

The keen local rivalry that exists between ourselves and Arsenal always adds extra bite to a clash between the two teams, and it is our hope that today's match will reach a high standard in skill and entertainment.

Arsenal are above us in the League at present, but this in no way perturbs our players. Our draw at Ipswich last Saturday followed a League victory over Derby County, and a further three points from today's match and that at Norwich next Saturday would give us a welcome uplift on the chart.

CUP KNOCK-OUT Our defeat by the only goal of the match in the League Cup on Queen's Park Rangers' ground on Monday evening came as a big disappointment. As winners of the trophy last season, we had hoped for another good run. On the night we could have no complaints over Rangers' win. They played some good football and deserved their 31st-minute goal from Don Givens, whose shot was deflected in by Mike England. Spurs made a late bid to force a draw, but we failed to find a way through Rangers' defence. Team: Daines; Evans, Knowles, Naylor, England, Beal, Gilzean, Perryman, Chivers, Peters and Coates (sub. Pratt).

THE IPSWICH DRAW A point away is always regarded as a point gained, but we cannot pretend to be satisfied with our display in holding Ipswich to a goalless draw at Portman Road last Saturday. Like Rangers, Ipswich are a good side, and we were on the defensive for a lot of the game. Barry Daines kept a good goal once he had recovered from an early misunderstanding with England, and our back four did well. Team: Daines; Evans, Knowles, Pratt, England, Beal, Gilzean, Perryman, Chivers, Peters and Coates. Jimmy Neighbour stood by as substitute.

NORWICH NEXT . . . Next Saturday we line up at Norwich . . . Last season we were defeated 2-1 at Carrow Road . . . Norwich were, of course, our League Cup Final victims last season . . . Last season Norwich finished with only the relegated clubs below them . . . It will be only our second-ever visit to Norwich for First Division points . . . Colin Prohett, the former Sheffield Wednesday defender, is a newcomer to the Norwich ranks this season . . . The referee at Norwich will be Mr. Bill Castle of Dudley . . . Norwich are at home to Coventry City today.

★ SPURS v GRASSHOPPER-CLUB, ZÜRICH ★

Skipper Martin Peters scores the fourth goal to cap a fine all-round performance in the second leg of the First Round U.E.F.A. tie.

Grasshopper's Thomas Niggli is dispossessed by the combined efforts of Ralph Coates and John Pratt.

MAN IN CHARGE

The referee today is Mr. Iowerth Jones of Treharris, Glamorganshire. Strangely enough, his last match on this ground was almost exactly a year ago. He was in charge of our League match against Stoke City on 7th October last year.

Mr. Jones graduated to the Football League Line from the Welsh League and Pontypridd and District League. He is now in his seventh season as a Football League referee.

He has refereed in Switzerland, West Germany, Spain, Italy and Denmark, took charge of an Anglo-Italian Cup Semi-final match last season and also had charge of the World Cup qualifying match between Northern Ireland and Cyprus. He is a lecturer in welding and fabrication. His hobbies include badminton, squash and cricket.

GROUND SWITCH

Owing to extensive improvements in the form of new dressing-room accommodation and car-parking facilities being carried out at our Cheshunt training ground, we expect to discontinue use of the ground for South-East Counties League Matches towards the end of this month.

With the kind co-operation of the Rolanmil Sports Club, we have arranged to switch our home matches in this competition temporarily to their ground in White Webbs Lane, Enfield. The ground is on the left-hand side, a short way up White Webbs Lane from the Bullsmoor District.

We hope supporters living in that area will make an effort to attend these Saturday morning matches. The games are well worth watching, and a good crowd of spectators is encouraging to our young players.

LATE WINNER A header by Danny Clapton following good work by Chris McGrath and Joe Peck gave the Reserves victory over Plymouth Argyle here in the Football Combination last Saturday. Clapton's winner came in the 87th minute. Brian Johnson had opened the score for Plymouth in the 18th minute, but 10 minutes later McGrath equalised for Spurs. Team: Lee; Kinnear, Osgood, Naylor, Collins, Margerrison, Mabee (sub. Peck), Holder, McGrath, Clapton and Jones.

GILLS CRUSHED Spurs Youth team were easy winners by 5-1 over Gillingham in the South-East Counties League at Cheshunt last Saturday. Noel Brotherston, Martin Robinson and Konrad Powley all scored before Gillingham netted late in the first half. In the second half Gary Smith and Garry Bacon (penalty) added to Spurs' score. Team: Cranstone; Smith, I., Anderson, Cegielski, R. Alexander, Smith, G., Brotherston, Bacon, Powley, Robinson (sub. D. Gillett) and Howe.

Jimmy Pearce, who has had an operation for damage to the cartilage in his right knee, left hospital last Saturday and has spent this week convalescing at home. Next week he reports for treatment at the Camden Road Rehabilitation Centre and we hope it will not be long before he is back on the field again.

4. From which Scottish club was the late John White transferred to Spurs in 1959?
5. A player who scored for Spurs in a Wembley final is now with another League club in London. Who is he?

TOP DOGS

The Royal Air Force Police Dog Demonstration Team will give a display of what the organisers describe as "total understanding between man and his traditional best friend" on the field for 15 minutes from 2.30 today and again for five minutes during the half-time break.

The first demonstration of this kind was at the 1948 Royal Tournament, but the first dogs were trained early in the war for safeguarding airfields and equipment against sabotage and theft.

Training is carried out at the R.A.F. Police Depot, Debden, Essex. All guard dogs and handlers of the U.S. Air Force based in the U.K. are also trained there. During the seven-week course, kindness and firmness are the watchwords and cruelty is never tolerated. The outstanding factor in training is patience.

All dogs are donated by civilian owners, and to continue their splendid work in this field, the R.A.F. need new recruits, both canine and human. The Commanding Officer at Debden will be pleased to hear from anyone with an Alsatian dog or bitch suitable for training.

Today's display is, of course, dependent upon suitable weather conditions.

The Ex-Spurs All-Star XI play Redbridge Youth XI on Sunday, 21st October, k.o. 2.30 at Ilford Gootball Club ground, Ley Street, Ilford, in aid of National Club Week.

BACKTRACK...

Reviving incidents from past League matches with Arsenal

ARSENAL'S visit to this ground last season, on a Saturday in December, resulted in a defeat for Spurs by 2—1. The score-line makes us wince, but the match itself produced some very good football. There were no goals in the first half, but after the break both Peter Storey and John Radford were on the scoring mark. The most Spurs could manage that day was a fine late goal by Martin Peters... We fared better in the return game at Arsenal Stadium in April. In a keen, hard game with defences dominant, Spurs, took the lead in the 57th minute when Martin Chivers drove home a fine shot from a pass by Peters. Our joy was short-lived. Storey equalised within seconds of the restart and the match finished a 1—1 draw... In the previous season we played our last away game at Highbury and beat Arsenal 2—0. It was a Thursday evening match, and it was in the second half that Spurs managed to get a grip on the game. A great shot by Alan Mullery put Spurs in front in the 62nd minute, and after our defence had stood up to a strong Arsenal rally, Ralph Coates scored a spectacular second goal to cap a breath-taking run from well inside his own half... The most memorable finish to a Spurs-Arsenal game? Without doubt it was on that May evening in 1971 when Ray Kennedy headed the only goal of the match in the closing minutes to give Arsenal the League championship and the first half of the "double" they completed by winning the F.A. Cup a few days later. The scenes on this ground after the final whistle that night will never be forgotten by anyone who was present... No season could start on a more exciting note than against Arsenal. It last happened in 1968, when the Gunners visited us on the opening day. Their memories of the occasion are happier than ours. At half-time Arsenal led by one goal, turned into his own net by Philip Beal, and Radford crashed home a second early in the second half. Jimmy Greaves scored to raise our hopes but Arsenal held on to win 2—1... A 4—4 draw is a rarity, but we have had three with Arsenal. The last was on a Tuesday evening at Highbury before a 68,000 crowd in October, 1963. All the drama and tension were there. Greaves scored for Spurs after 30 seconds, and in the 15th minute Bobby Smith scored our second. Back came Arsenal with a penalty goal from George Eastham, who scored a second home goal after Dave Mackay had restored our two-goal lead. Smith then scored another to give Spurs a 4—2 lead at half-time. Spurs were handicapped by an injury to Greaves in the second half, but we held Arsenal until the closing minutes, when Joe Baker and Geoff Strong squared matters in a frantic finish... It was a strangely similar story a year earlier on this ground. Mackay scored the first and further early goals were scored by John White and Cliff Jones. Then Arsenal hit back with two goals from David Court, and another from Jones gave us a 4—2 half-time lead. The second half was Arsenal's, John McLeod and Strong scoring to save a point at 4—4... The other 4—4 draw was at Highbury in 1958. In that game it was Spurs who were 4—2 behind, and the late goals that saved a point were scored by Tommy Harmer, from a penalty, and Smith. Ron Henry had deflected the ball into his own net for Arsenal's first, but Smith equalised before half-time. Danny Clapton put Arsenal in front, Harmer levelled things up, and then Gordon Nutt and David Herd gave the Gunners their 4—2 lead... Our biggest away win over Arsenal since the war was 3—0 in 1954. George Robb snatched two smart goals before half-time, and Sonny Walters headed the third... Our worst-ever season against Arsenal was our relegation campaign of 1934—35. Arsenal, champions that season, came here and won 6—0... At Highbury earlier that season they had crushed us 5—1. George Hunt scored a great goal for Spurs that day, but it was cold comfort with Arsenal already 5—0 ahead with a hat-trick from Ted Drake, another from "Pat" Beasley and an own goal from Tommy Evans... The previous season Spurs pulled off a great win 3—1 on our first League appearance at Highbury for six years. Spurs were three up with two goals from Willie Evans, one a penalty, and one from Les Howe before Cliff Bastin netted a second-half-goal for Arsenal.
