COMMENT

THE CURTAIN rings down this afternoon on season 1969-70, and we could not end our match programme with a more attractive fixture than a visit from our near neighbours and rivals, Arsenal.

This match was, of course, scheduled originally for the evening of Wednesday, 15th April, but Arsenal's progress in the Fairs Cup caused a postponement. A season that was expected to end earlier than usual has instead extended into May, and it has fallen to us to stage the final First Division match of the campaign.

There is always something extra special about a clash between Spurs and Arsenal, and today's game loses little by the mid-table position occupied by both clubs.

Today's game is, in fact, the 68th meeting of the two clubs in the Football League, and an interesting fact emerges from the record of all those matches. Spurs and Arsenal, in the course of the 67 League games played, have each scored 115 goals.

Today we sign off with a match against Arsenal. Last season we opened the League programme with a visit from our friends from Highbury. We have therefore had a long wait since Arsenal's last League visit, although they were here in the League Cup Semi-final last season.

BUSY SEASON

Their success in the Fairs Cup—and we offer them our hearty congratulations on winning the trophy this week—has made this a busy season for Arsenal. In addition to the F.A. and League Cups, in which they played six games, including three replays, Arsenal have been involved in 12 matches in the Fairs Cup.

Here is the full away League record of Arsenal, with goalscorers:

Leeds United	0-0
West Bromwich Albion (George)	1-0
West Ham United (Lampard own goal)	1-1
Newcastle United (Robertson)	1-3
Burnley (Graham)	1-0
Chelsea	0-3
Stoke City	0-0
Sunderland (Sammels)	1-1
Crystal Palace	5-1
(Armstrong, Radford 3, Graham)
Wolverhampton Wanderers	0-2
Liverpool (Robertson)	1-0
Sheffield Wednesday (Sammels)	1-1
Nottingham Forest (McNab)	1-1
Manchester United (Marinello)	1-2
Coventry City	0-2

QUIZ FOR TODAY—Answers on page 13

1. A former Spurs and Arsenal player vacated his post as manager of a northern club during this season. Can you name him and the club?
2. Which Spurs player made his League debut for the club in our home match with Arsenal last season?
3. In each of Spurs' last two League matches a former Arsenal player has appeared in the opposition. Who are they?
4. Who scored Spurs' goal in the 1-1 draw with Arsenal in the second leg of the League Cup Semi-final last season?
5. A former Spurs and Arsenal player is now with another First Division club. Who is he?

Everton (George Radford)	2-2
Manchester City (Graham)	1-1
Derby County (Radford, Roberts)	2-3
Southampton (Sammels, George)	2-0
Ipswich Town (George)	1-2

In home League games, Arsenal were held to a draw on no less than 10 occasions. Here is the full record, with scorers:

Everton	0-1
Leeds United (Sprake own goal)	1-1
Nottingham Forest (McNab, Graham)	2-1
Sheffield Wednesday	0-0
Tottenham Hotspur	2-3
(Robertson, Radford)
Manchester United (Graham, Sammels)	2-2
Coventry City	0-1
West Bromwich Albion (Radford)	1-1
Ipswich Town	0-0
Derby County	4-0
(George, Sammels 2, Armstrong)
Manchester City (Neill)	1-1
Southampton (Sammels, Radford)	2-2
Burnley	3-2
(Robertson, Radford, Armstrong)
Newcastle United	0-0
Chelsea	0-3
Stoke City	0-0
Sunderland (Storey, Kennedy, Kelly)	3-1
Liverpool (Sammels, Radford)	2-1
Wolverhampton Wanderers (Graham 2)	2-2
Crystal Palace (Radford, George)	2-0
West Ham United (Kelly, Radford)	2-1

SCORERS

John Radford leads Arsenal's scorers in the League with 12 goals. He is followed by Jon Sammels 8; George Graham 7; Charlie George 6; Jimmy Robertson 4; George Armstrong 3; Bob McNab and Eddie Kelly 2 each; Peter Storey, Ray Kennedy, Peter Marinello, John Roberts and Terry Neill 1 each; and own goals by Gary Sprake (Leeds) and Frank Lampard (West Ham).

Arsenal's goals in the F.A., League and Fairs Cup were scored by Graham, Radford and Sammels 7 each; George 4; and Bobby Gould, McNab, Kennedy and Kelly 1 each.

OLD RIVALS

Huddersfield Town and Blackpool, who have been promoted to the First Division, are old rivals of ours, and we have had many fine matches with both clubs in the past.

Huddersfield have not played on this ground since April, 1956, a few weeks before they were relegated to Division 2, but Blackpool were still in Division 1 up to three seasons ago.

As Sheffield Wednesday and Sunderland, the relegated clubs, are also from the North, our travelling mileage in the League next season will show little change.

PAST CLASHES

Here is the full record of League, F.A. Cup and League Cup matches played between Spurs and Arsenal since the first meeting at the Manor Ground, Plumstead, in December, 1909. All League matches have been in the First Division. Spurs' score is shown first.

F.A. CUP

1948-49 (Round 3) - 0-3

LEAGUE CUP

1968-69 (Semi-final) 1-1 0-1

CUP-WINNERS

Spurs Youth 4, Millwall Youth 1

In beating Millwall here last Saturday by 4-1, the Youth team carried off the Southern Junior Floodlit Cup in convincing fashion.

The first leg of the Final had ended in a goalless draw on Millwall's ground, and we suffered an early rebuff when the Lions took the lead with a goal by Steve Brown, their outside-right, in the seventh minute.

It was not until a few minutes before half-time that Spurs equalised, Graeme Souness running through to score a fine goal. It was Souness again who put us in front halfway through the second half.

In the closing minutes Ray Clarke added two more, the first from the penalty spot after John Oliver had been brought down.

Team: Daines; R. Almond, E. Jones; Dillon, M., W. Edwards, Souness; J. Oliver, Turner, Clarke, Perryman and M. Flanagan.

MARATHON

Coventry City Youth 2, Spurs Youth 2 (after extra time)

A draw after extra time on Tuesday evening at Coventry turned the F.A. Youth Cup Final into a marathon tie. We are, of course unable to make reference to the fourth match between the teams here last night.

Steve Perryman put Spurs in front in the ninth minute on Tuesday, but Alan Green equalised for Coventry a minute later.

In the second half John Stevenson scored for Coventry following the regrettable incident that led to the sending-off of Graeme Souness.

Spurs fought back in great style for John Oliver to snatch the goal that forced a further replay last night.

Team: Daines; R. Almond, E. Jones; Dillon, M., W. Edwards, Souness; J. Oliver, Turner, Clarke, Perryman and M. Flanagan (sub. R. Gilson).

Attendance 14,926.

JUNE WEDDINGS

Three of our players will be married in June. On the 6th of that month, Terry Naylor will marry Miss Linda Fitzgerald, a 19-year-old typist, at Holy Trinity Church, Sydenham, and on the 20th Peter Collins marries Miss Sabina Kaluza, a 23-year-old secretary, at the village church at Wickford in Essex.

Third of the trio is Ray Evans, who marries Miss Sandra Thomas, a 19-year-old comptometer operator with the Eastern Gas Board, at All Saints' Church, Edmonton.

Ray and his bride are bound for the Costa Brava, and Peter and Sabina will spend their honeymoon at Ibiza.

Peter will set up home at Little Waltham, near Chelmsford, Terry will live at Sydenham and Ray will stay in Edmonton.

Arsenal's visit on the opening day of last season drew a crowd of 56,280. Our biggest this season was for the visit of Liverpool, when the figure was 50,474. Our lowest home gate was 27,693 for the visit of Southampton.

The biggest away crowd was Arsenal's 55,251, and the smallest for a match against Spurs was 13,993 at Sunderland.

WELCOME TO ARSENAL . . .

THE COMPOSITION of Arsenal's team has not changed a great deal since they were last here in the Semi-final of the League Cup in December, 1968.

Two young players in half-back Eddie Kelly and centre-forward Charlie George have emerged this season at League level, and winger Peter Marinello was signed at a big fee from Hibernian in January. The rest of the Arsenal players expected to appear today have performed in First Division football on this ground in the past.

George is a local who played for Islington Schools. He signed for Arsenal as an apprentice in May, 1966, and as a full professional in February, 1968.

Kelly is a Scot from Glasgow, who joined Arsenal soon after his 17th birthday. He has been a professional at Highbury since February, 1968.

Marinello, whose signing was accompanied by a blaze of publicity, had established himself as one of the outstanding forwards in Scottish football. He joined Hibs from a Scottish minor club in 1966.

WOLVES AMATEUR

Goalkeeper Bob Wilson was an amateur with Wolverhampton Wanderers before he signed as a professional for Arsenal. That was in March, 1964, but he had joined Arsenal as an amateur during the previous year. Wilson was born in Chesterfield.

Right-back Peter Storey was a School-boy International. He comes from Farnham in Surrey, joined Arsenal as an apprentice in May, 1961, and became a full professional in September, 1962.

England full-back Bob McNab made his name with Huddersfield Town, his home-town club. Arsenal secured his transfer from Huddersfield in October, 1966 in face of stern competition from other clubs.

Half-back Frank McLintock, Arsenal's skipper, is also a player in the international limelight. He was recalled to Scotland's team against Northern Ireland last month.

McLintock is a Glasgow man, who joined Leicester City as a junior, and was transferred to Arsenal in October, 1964.

OWN PRODUCT

Half-back Peter Simpson is one of Arsenal's own products, and a highly successful one judged on his form over the last couple of years. He comes from Gorleston in Norfolk, and joined Arsenal's ground staff in May, 1960.

Centre-forward George Graham has also been in top form this season, and has commanded the attention of the Scottish selectors. Graham started his career in English football with Aston Villa, and in July, 1964 moved to Chelsea.

Arsenal secured Graham's transfer in October, 1966 as part of the deal that took striker Tommy Baldwin in the opposite direction.

Winger George Armstrong has played more League games for Arsenal than any other current player on the club's books. He comes from County Durham, and arrived at Highbury as an inside-forward trialist in August, 1961. He has played for the England Under-23 team.

VITAL GOALS

We have good reason to remember John Radford for the vital goals he scored against us last season. It was Radford who scored the last-minute goal against us for Arsenal in the first leg of the League Cup Semi-final last season.

In the second leg, on this ground, it was Radford again who scored in the closing minutes to put Arsenal level at 1—1, and so take his team to the Final.

When we beat Arsenal at Highbury last September, Radford again scored.

John is a Yorkshireman from Hemsworth, near Pontefract. He has been with Arsenal as a full-time professional since February, 1964. Radford is a full international, and has also played for the Football League.

Jon Sammels is another of Arsenal's experienced forwards. He comes from Ipswich, joined Arsenal as an apprentice in January, 1961, and has been a full professional since July, 1962.

Ray Kennedy, who scored Arsenal's goal against Anderlecht in Brussels last week, is a young forward who was upgraded from apprentice to full professional in November, 1968. He comes from Seaton Delaval in Northumberland.

MALTA BOUND

On Monday, 11th May we fly to Malta, where we are due to play matches on the 13th, 16th and 17th of that month. It will be Spurs' first visit to Malta since 1929, when we won all six matches played. The clubs we expect to play are Sliema Wanderers, Floriana and Valetta.

Our first match prior to the opening of next season will be at home to Glasgow Rangers on the evening of Monday, 3rd August. We then fly to Majorca, where we will compete in a tournament between 6th and 9th August.

The other clubs involved will be Atletico Madrid, F.C. Cologne and Slovan Bratislava. We played Atletico Madrid and Slovan Bratislava when winning the Cup-Winners' Cup in season 1962-63.

For the information of supporters interested in attending the matches in Malta and Majorca, 4S Sports are organising all-in holidays of varying length to both places to include all the games. 4S Sports will be pleased to supply full details to anyone contacting them at their office at Africa House, 64-78 Kingsway, W.C.2 or by telephone 01-242 0441.

We take this opportunity of thanking you for your support throughout the season, and we offer an extra word of appreciation to those who travelled to away matches, and to all supporters who have attended our Reserve and Youth matches.

FLASHBACK

TO 20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK-END

SPURS, already assured of promotion to the First Division, were beaten by the only goal of the game by Swansea Town in South Wales.

Although Swansea were worth their win, their goal, scored in the second half, had an element of luck about it. From that point Swansea were on top, but a smart display of goalkeeping by Ted Ditchburn prevented the home team from adding to their score.

Team: Ditchburn; Ramsey, Willis; Burgess, Clarke, Marchi; Walters, Bennett, Duquemin, Rees and Medley.

JOURNEY FOR JOE

Joe Kinnear flies to Warsaw on Monday with the Eire International party for the two matches against Poland at Poznan next Wednesday and against West Germany in Berlin on Saturday. Joe has already made three appearances for Eire this season. We wish him good luck next week.

No Spurs player has been ever-present this season, but Pat Jennings and Alan Mullery have missed only one League match each.

Five players have made their League debut for Spurs this season, namely Steve Perryman, Martin Peters, Terry Naylor, Roy Woolcott and Ken Hancock. Of the three matches played by Naylor, two of them away, none was lost.

This is the third season in succession in which Jim Finney has refereed our home League match with Arsenal.

The last seven goals conceded by Spurs in League matches on this ground have all been scored at the Edmonton end. The last goal scored by the opposition at the Park Lane end was Willie Carlin's for Derby in January.

Next week the contractors will move in to start work removing the top soil from most of the playing pitch. The pitch will then be covered with a new layer of soil prior to the annual re-seeding.

Last week the death was announced of Donald Finlay, the former champion hurdler. We wonder how many Spurs' supporters remember him playing outside-right for us while on R.A.F. service during the war.

Unless we score from a spot-kick this afternoon, this season will be the first in which Spurs have not scored on this ground from the 12-yards mark since 1948-49.

SEASON TICKET PRICES FOR 1970/71

Further to the announcement concerning increased charges for next season, which appears elsewhere in this programme, the new prices for Season Tickets are set out below.

RENEWAL FOR 1970-71

Ticket Holders are now invited to apply for the renewal of their ticket(s) in the usual way, by completing the "Renewal Form" from their ticket books, which should be sent in to the Ticket Office to reach us by 15th May, 1970.

Payment may, if desired, be deferred until 15th June, 1970, but remittances received at an early date will assist our staff with the issue of the new ticket books.

WHERE PAYMENT HAS NOT BEEN RECEIVED BY MONDAY, 29th JUNE, 1970 TICKETS WILL BE RE-ALLOCATED to persons on the waiting list.

NO REMINDER NOTICES WILL BE SENT THROUGH THE POST

We wish Sir Alf Ramsey and the English players every success this summer in their efforts to retain the World Cup in Mexico. Our own interest is heightened by the inclusion of Martin Peters and Alan Mullery (above) in the England party and all our supporters will join us in wishing them good luck and success with England.
