Occasion Without Precedent

SPURS and Wolverhampton Wanderers share the distinction of contesting the Final of the U.E.F.A.—Union of European Football Associations—Cup in its first season, and in staging the second leg this evening, we extend a cordial welcome to our old friends and rivals from Staffordshire.

For the first time in football history, two English clubs are in opposition in a major European Final, and tonight's occasion is also without precedent in our own Club records. Never before have we staged a Final tie of a major competition on our own ground.

Each of our past triumphs in the F.A. Cup, European Cup Winners Cup and Football League Cup were achieved on neutral ground.

When the U.E.F.A. competition opened last September, it embraced 64 clubs, some from countries as far away as Russia, Bulgaria and Cyprus. Yet the Final is being contested by two English clubs whose grounds are only 132 miles apart!

Only four English clubs were in the original 64—the other two were Leeds United and Southampton—and whatever the result of the Final, we feel that an all-English tie has added to our national soccer prestige.

Naturally, we are hoping Spurs will be the first winners of the trophy. We have been successful in every major Final in which we have played. It is a record, listed at the head of this page, of which we are justly proud, and we are anxious to preserve it. This evening we start with a 2-1 lead from the first leg, played on Wolves' ground a fortnight ago. It was a valuable win which gives us an advantage from the first whistle this evening, but we cannot afford to let it lull us into a sense of security.

It is up to our players to exploit the advantage they already hold by going all out to increase their lead. Wolves are a fine team, capable of playing excellent football. We have the utmost respect for their ability, and know they will make a tremendous effort to make up the leeway.

There is every prospect of a great match tonight.

FINAL QUIZ The answers will be found on page 14

1. Who were the two goalkeepers in this season's Football League Cup Final?
2. Wolves last appeared in the F.A. Cup Final in 1960. Who were their opponents and what was the result of the match?
3. When did two clubs from the same city last contest the F.A. Cup Final, and who were they?
4. Can you name the last Staffordshire club to win a Wembley final?
5. Which two clubs met in the Final of the European Cup at Wembley last June, and what was the result?

ACTION AT MOLINEUX

Goalkeeper Phil Parkes has no chance as Martin Chivers cracks home Spurs' second goal from 30 yards' range in the first leg.

A desperate moment for Spurs as Pat Jennings saves from John Richards.

THE FIRST LEG

THE first leg of our U.E.F.A. Cup Final with Wolves was played on a drab, damp evening at Molineux, but there was no lack of sparkle about either of the two vital goals scored for us by Martin Chivers in the second half.

The first of the two could not have been scored at a better time. In the opening minutes of the second half, Wolves exerted considerable pressure, and we conceded four corners in quick succession.

Spurs had more than one narrow escape during this period, and it was not until the 56th minute that we launched the counter attack that produced the first goal.

Mike England took a free-kick out on the right, and Chivers headed us into the lead in great style. A few minutes later Martin Peters placed another free-kick in the goalmouth, but this time Chivers headed over.

By this time the tempo of the game had quickened considerably, and when Jim McCalliog equalised for Wolves in the 72nd minute, the stage was set for a tremendous struggle.

PRATT FOR COATES

John Pratt replaced Ralph Coates and within minutes he had nearly turned a cross from the right into his own goal. Pat Jennings, who had just previously made a fine save from Frank Munro, did well to keep the ball out of the net.

Wolves were fighting hard, and in one menacing raid, Derek Dougan screwed the ball just wide of the far post. The big moment was reserved, however, for the 87th minute when Chivers cracked a thunderbolt of a shot into Wolves' net to finish off a move started from defence by Cyril Knowles.

There had been a lot less incident in the goalless first half, although Chivers had hit the angle of the woodwork after only five minutes, and Jennings distinguished himself with a fine save after his downfield kick had been returned promptly on target by Danny Hegan from close to the centre line.

Our large contingent of supporters made themselves heard at Molineux, and their encouragement was much appreciated by the players.

WOLVES: Parkes; Shaw, Taylor, Hegan, Munro, McAlle, McCalliog, Hibbitt, Richards, Dougan and Wagstaffe.

SPURS: Jennings; Kinnear, Knowles, Mullery, England, Beal, Gilzean, Perryman, Chivers, Peters and Coates (sub. Pratt).

REFEREE TONIGHT is Mr. LAURENS VAN RAVENS. One of the world's leading referees, Mr. van Ravens lives at Coorburg, near the Hague. He has been a F.I.F.A. referee since 1965, and has controlled 31 inter-country matches, including Scotland v England and West Germany v England, both in 1968, and two World Cup games in Mexico in 1970. A commercial agent at the Hague, Mr. van Ravens speaks English. THE LINESMEN are Mr. Theodorus van Boosten, from Hoensbroek, near Aachen, who owns a ladies' gown shop, and Mr. Bernadus Hoppenbrouwer from Leidschendam, who is in the chemical industry near the Hague. Both linesmen have had considerable experience in international football.

AWAY GOALS

In the U.E.F.A. competition away goals count double if the score is level after the home and away games. If by this method the score is still level, extra time of 15 minutes each way is played, during which period an away goal still has double value.

If there is no decision after extra time, the winners are determined by a series of penalty kicks, taken alternately by the two teams.

As Spurs won the first leg at Wolverhampton by 2—1, the penalty system could only be brought into operation if Wolves were winners by the same score of 2—1 tonight after extra time.

A 1—0 win by Wolves tonight would give Spurs the trophy, but if our visitors won 3—2, the Cup would be theirs.

The substitution of two players per team is permitted at any time during the game.

The Men of Molineux

Phil Parkes

for the England Under-23 team.

GERALD TAYLOR (Full-back). Comes from Hull, and was spotted by Wolves at an early age. Developed in Wolves' Yorkshire nursery, and in November, 1964 was added to the full professional staff at Molineux. Made his League debut in the Second Division in season 1966-67.

FRANK MUNRO (Centre-half). A full Scottish international, who also played for the Under-23s. Comes from the Dundee area, and was on Chelsea's books as a youngster. Returned to Scotland, and signed for Dundee United. Later joined Aberdeen, and it was from the Dons that he was transferred to Wolves in January, 1968.

KEN HIBBITT (Forward). Born in Bradford, and started his career with Bradford Park Avenue, then in the Football League. Left Bradford for Wolves in November, 1968, and was given his chance in the League side last season. Has played for the England Under-23s.

DANNY HEGAN (Midfield). Another Scot and a very experienced player. Born at Coatbridge, and played for Sunderland and Ipswich Town before moving to West Bromwich Albion. Wolves signed him in May, 1970. Played for Ipswich under Bill McGarry, his present manager at Molineux.

Bernard Shaw

Danny Hegan

JOHN McALLE (Midfield). A Liverpool man who joined Wolves straight from school. That was in 1965, when he was signed as an apprentice professional. Has been a full professional with Wolves since February, 1967. Made his League debut during season 1967-68.

JOHN RICHARDS (Forward). One of the outstanding discoveries of the season who has been rewarded with a place in the England Under-23 squad to tour East Germany, Poland and Russia this summer. Born at Warrington, and joined Wolves straight from school. Has been a professional since July, 1969.

DEREK DOUGAN (Forward). One of football's outstanding personalities. Born in Belfast and has made many appearances for Northern Ireland. Started with Distillery, who transferred him to Portsmouth, in whose colours he first appeared on this ground in February, 1959. Has also played for Blackburn Rovers, Aston Villa, Peterborough United and Leicester City. Chairman of the Professional Footballers' Association.

Derek Dougan

DAVID WAGSTAFFE (Forward). Has given Spurs plenty of trouble in the past. A fast-raiding winger who can pull any defence apart. Born in Manchester, and made his name with Manchester City. Left City for Wolves in 1964.

David Wagstaffe

JIM McCALLIOG (Forward). Has captained Wolves in the absence of Mike Bailey, who has been on the injured list. A full Scottish international, who was born in Glasgow. Signed for Chelsea after a brief spell with Leeds United as an amateur. Left Chelsea for Sheffield Wednesday in 1965, and scored for the Yorkshire club in the F.A. Cup Final against Everton in 1966. Joined Wolves from Wednesday in August, 1969.

MIKE BAILEY (Wing-half). Now recovered from injury and named among the substitutes for tonight's match. A former English international, who made his name with Charlton Athletic, and was transferred to Wolves in 1966. Captained Wolves here last October, and scored their goal. Born at Wisbech.

IT'S HARDER TO WIN

By BERNARD JOY

(London Evening Standard)

IN many ways the U.E.F.A. Cup is harder to win than the European Cup, the blue riband of club trophies in the Old World. One factor is that there is an extra round—making six in all—thus increasing the chance of a slip-up. A crucial injury or a silly mistake can mean elimination.

Another factor is that the entrants include sides rising to their peak, who narrowly miss Championship honours. Often they go on to win the League title in the following season, as did Leeds in 1969 and Arsenal last year.

Look at the entries this year. From England there were Leeds and Southampton, as well as Spurs and Wolves, the finalists tonight. From Italy there were Milan, Juventus and Napoli, the two Romanian clubs whom Spurs knocked out, Real Madrid, Ferencvaros from Hungary, Spartak Moscow, Cologne and Hamburg from Germany. It is a field far stronger than that in the European Cup-Winners Cup.

The competition was known as the Fairs Cup until this season, and it proved to be a misnomer as far as behaviour was concerned. Two years ago the Arsenal players were assaulted by their opponents, the Lazio club of Rome, as they got into the coach after the reception following the match.

The scenes were even uglier when Chelsea played in Rome against Roma in 1965. Missiles were thrown at the Chelsea players as they inspected the pitch before the kick-off. The barrage continued throughout the match and at the team's coach as it drove away afterwards.

The missiles included a cabbage and lumps of ice—what causes spectators to take those to a match?—and it was as well that there was a wire fence around the pitch. The nastiest moment was when a bottle landed near manager Tom Docherty as he sat on the trainer's bench. He jumped up angrily, got hold of the bottle and I thought for an awful moment he was going to hurl it back.

Spurs' match against Rapid in Bucharest in the autumn was described by manager Bill Nicholson as "one of the dirtiest we have had to face". Jimmy Pearce was sent off after being on as substitute for 17 minutes.

SPANISH DOMINATION

At first the entrants were from towns which had a trade fair and the first two competitions were clumsily spread over more than one season. Spanish clubs dominated the first seven tournaments, winning six times.

Interest in England was lukewarm at the beginning and it was left to sponsors like Birmingham, Sheffield Wednesday and Nottingham Forest to make up the numbers. As the Fairs Cup gradually captured the public attention, the challenge for places grew and the Football League decided to make qualification depend on position in the First Division.

Later the League gave one place to the winner of the League Cup, in order to stimulate interest in that trophy. But Q.P.R. and Swindon, winners in 1967 and 1969, were not accepted because they were outside the First Division.

Leeds pointed the way to English domination by reaching the Final in 1967 when they were beaten by Dynamo Zagreb. They were in the Final again a year later and beat Ferencvaros, whom Wolves defeated this season, by the only goal in the two-legged Final. It was a controversial one, the Hungarians claiming that Jackie Charlton impeded the goalkeeper at a corner.

Although finishing 10th in the First Division, Newcastle surprisingly qualified for the 1967-68 competition. They did so because of the one-city, one-club ruling. Even more surprising was that they won the Cup, inspired by Bobby Moncur.

Arsenal were winners in the following season. In the Semi-final they eliminated Ajax—Johan Cruyff and all—and in the Final the opponents were Anderlecht. Ajax had their revenge in the European Cup this season.

Leeds were the winners again last season, despite a valiant challenge to Arsenal for the League title. Torrential rain caused the postponement of the first leg of the Final against Juventus in Turin. It was a 2-2 draw and as the return was a 1-1 draw, Leeds won on away goals.

And so to this season when English supremacy was emphasised by Spurs and Wolves reaching the Final.

PRESENTATION

The U.E.F.A. Cup will be presented to the captain of the winning team at the conclusion of tonight's match.

In order that each and every spectator here this evening may have an unobstructed view of the presentation ceremony, it will take place on the playing pitch.

We therefore appeal to spectators to refrain from encroaching on the field. Please keep your position on the terraces or in the stands. In this way the maximum number of people will be able to watch the presentation in comfort.

U.E.F.A. Trail

THE trail that has led Spurs to the Final of the U.E.F.A. Cup in its first season started late last September against Keflavik, the Icelandic amateurs, at the Laugardalur Stadium in Reykjavik.

It was a match we had no difficulty in winning. Alan Gilzean gave Spurs an early lead, and by the time the final whistle sounded, he had netted three. In a 6-1 win the other goals were notched by Ralph Coates, his first for Spurs, and Alan Mullery, who scored two.

Phil Holder

It was in this match that Graeme Souness made his debut in the senior team as substitute for Mullery.

Not surprisingly, the second leg against Keflavik, here in early October, produced an avalanche of goals. Spurs won 9-0, after leading 4-0 at half-time.

Martin Chivers netted three, Gilzean grabbed two, and Steve Perryman, Coates, Cyril Knowles and Phil Holder were all on the target. Holder came on for Martin Peters for the second half, and like Souness in the first leg, was making his senior debut.

STERNER TEST

The next round provided us with a much sterner test. We travelled to Nantes in the West of France to tackle the local club at their spacious Stade Marcel Saupin ground.

The match was played on what was a summerlike evening and it proved a keen contest that was fairly reflected by a goalless draw. In this game Roger Morgan replaced Gilzean during the second half to make his first senior appearance for over a year.

Spurs edged into the next round by a single goal against Nantes in the second leg here. On the balance of play, Spurs should have won with something in hand, but our only success was the early goal by Peters that pulled us through.

In Round 3 we staged the first leg for the first time. Rapid Bucarest were our visitors, and we left the field with a comfortable 3-0 lead. Peters and Chivers scored in the first half, and the latter was again on the target during the second half.

The second leg in Bucharest ended in a win for Spurs by 2-0, but it was not a match that left many pleasant memories.

Jimmy Pearce, who was ordered off in company with a home player, scored our first goal, and Chivers scored a brilliant second after Peters had failed to convert a penalty kick.

BACK TO RUMANIA

The draw for the fourth round took Spurs back to Rumania, this time to oppose Unizale Textile, Arad. The first leg, at Arad in March, was played on a dry, bumpy pitch, and Spurs faced a troublesome wind in the first half.

Our team did well that day. Morgan notched an early goal, and just before half-time Mike England scored a valuable second from a flicked pass by Gilzean.

A fortnight later, as most of our supporters will recall, we played the second leg here, and for the first time in the competition were given a fright.

Arad snatched the lead halfway through the second half, and that was the first goal conceded by Spurs in the competition on this ground. Fortunately, we kept Arad from adding to their score, and Gilzean headed a late goal to enable us to finish with a 1-1 draw.

INTEREST MOUNTS

In the Semi-final we were paired with A.C. Milan, and the mounting interest in our progress was reflected in our first U.E.F.A. gate of more than 40,000.

In that match Mullery returned following his loan period with Fulham to captain Spurs, but we had to fight back after conceding a first-half goal to Milan. A great shot by Perryman put us level before half-time, and the same player cracked home another scorcher in the second half.

A fortnight later, in rain-soaked conditions, we lined up for the second leg at the San Siro Stadium in Milan. It was a fine game, played before a vast crowd in an atmosphere of high emotion and fever-pitch excitement.

Mullery gave us a wonderful start with a great goal, and although Milan squared the match with a penalty kick in the second half, Spurs won the tie, and with it the right to meet Wolves in the Final.

WE'VE MET BEFORE . . .

WHATEVER happens on the field tonight, this second-leg match of the U.E.F.A. Cup Final between Spurs and Wolves will be talked about for a very long time.

The present is what matters most in football, but the past can never be dismissed. It provides the rich tapestry of reminiscence and forms the sinews of tradition that instil the sense of pride without which no club can flourish.

Jimmy Dimmock

with us while we savour the memory.

It was scored in the second half after good work by Bert Bliss. Dimmock carried the ball forward, regained possession after once losing it, and finally aimed a brilliant oblique shot past Noel George, Wolves' goalkeeper.

It was a goal that brought the Cup to Tottenham after a lapse of 20 years, and an aura of glamour to Dimmock that stayed with him throughout his career. There were two facts about Jimmy that heightened the romantic appeal of his Cup-winning effort.

He was the youngest member of Spurs' team, and the only local-born player. Jimmy now lives in a flat off Angel Road, Edmonton, and souvenirs of that occasion adorn the wall of his living room.

GOALS COUNT

It's goals that count and those that are missed are not so readily remembered.

Little has been said, or for that matter recorded, over the years, of the pressure applied by Wolves in the closing minutes, and of the scoring chance missed by Sammy Brooks, their outside-left, that could have changed the whole story of the 1921 Final.

Brooks had a great chance, but a desperate intervention by Charlie Walters saved the day for Spurs. Brooks must have been in the depths of depression when he left the field that day, but a year later he became a Spurs player.

Sammy, standing only 5 ft. 3 in., had spent his best years with Wolves, and had played for England in a Victory international against Wales just after the first world war. He spent two seasons here, and later played for Southend.

The only other occasion on which we have played Wolves in the F.A. Cup was in the fourth round here in 1969, and for many of us the events of that match are still fresh in mind.

David Wagstaffe put Wolves in front with an early goal, and it was not until the second half that Neil Johnson scored a great equaliser following a slick move involving Cyril Knowles, Terry Venables, Jimmy Greaves and Alan Gilzean. A few minutes later Spurs scored again, Greaves stabbing the ball home from Mike England's headed pass. This goal ended the scoring and Spurs were through to the next round.

Our only other Cup clash with Wolves was in the following season. We were drawn away to Wolves in the Second Round of the Football League Cup, and on that occasion we were the losers.

It was a hard, tense struggle in which Wolves showed the greater thrust in attack. The only goal was scored in the ninth minute by Jim McCalliog.

Sammy Brooks

LAST ROUND UP

Spurs 4, Leicester City 3

Our last home League match, on the last Saturday of April, produced a lot of incident, and seven goals.

Mike England headed us into the lead in little more than a minute from the start, and Jimmy Pearce soon stabbed home a second.

Len Glover then jolted us with a goal for Leicester, and a penalty converted by Jon Sammels a few minutes before half-time changed the outlook.

A brilliant goal by Cyril Knowles just after the restart regained the lead for Spurs, and later the same player scored from a penalty at the second attempt.

Malcolm Partridge scored a third for Leicester in the closing minutes.

Team: Jennings; Kinnear, Knowles, Coates, England, Beal, Pearce, Perryman, Gilzean, Pratt and Neighbour. Terry Naylor stood by as substitute.

Arsenal 0, Spurs 2

Is there a better way of finishing the League season than winning at Arsenal Stadium? A fine second-half display at Highbury last Thursday evening produced two splendid goals for Spurs and both points.

Underfoot conditions were extremely difficult in the first half, and there was a marked lack of incident. Just before half-time Pat Jennings made a fine save at short range from Sammy Nelson.

A great shot by Alan Mullery put Spurs in front in the 62nd minute. Arsenal fought hard for an equaliser, and it was after John Pratt had cleared from a home attack that his pass set Ralph Coates on a run from deep in his own half to finish with a great shot into Arsenal's net.

Team: Jennings; Kinnear, Knowles, Mullery, England, Beal, Gilzean, Perryman, Pearce, Pratt and Coates. Roger Morgan stood by as substitute.

As this is the last match of the season, we take this opportunity of thanking you for your support through what has been a long and crowded campaign. We also wish to express an extra word of appreciation to all those supporters who have travelled to cheer the team abroad and at away matches in this country, and to everyone who has attended the Reserve and Youth team matches.

Leicester City Res. 0, Spurs Res. 1

The Reserves, wound up their programme with a win on Leicester's ground on the last Saturday of April.

It was a good match in which the only goal was scored by Morgan halfway through the first half.

Team: Daines; Evans, Want, Dillon, Peck, McGrath (sub. Jones, E.), Jenkins, Souness, Clarke, Clapton and Morgan.

Tonight's is Spurs' 26th Cup match of the season! This figure includes replays in the F.A. and League Cups.

Spurs will spend the first week of June in Israel, playing one match against the Maccabi club in Tel Aviv.

Mike Dillon and Graeme Souness were due to leave early this week for Canada. They will spend the close-season weeks playing for Montreal Olympic, but will be back with us by the end of July.

Congratulations to Spurs Juniors on winning the S.E. Counties League Div. 2 Cup. Spurs won the Final on an aggregate score of 5-4. We won the first leg at Leyton 2-1 and drew the second leg 3-3 at Cheshunt.

FOR THE RECORD

WEDNESDAY, 26TH APRIL
SPURS RES. 3, CRYSTAL PALACE RES. 1.
(Football Combination)

Team: Lee; Evans, Jones, E., Souness, Collins (sub. Peck), Naylor, Clarke, Holder, Jenkins, Morgan and Neighbour.

Goalscorers: Naylor, Clarke, Morgan.

Answers to Final Quiz

- The two goalkeepers in this season's Football League Cup Final were Gordon Banks (Stoke City) and Peter Bonetti (Chelsea).
- Wolves defeated Blackburn Rovers 3-0 in the F.A. Cup Final of 1960.
- The last time two clubs from the same city contested the F.A. Cup Final was in the all-London final of 1967, when Spurs played Chelsea.
- The last club from Staffordshire to win a Wembley final was Stoke City, who carried off the Football League Cup in March.
- Ajax of Holland defeated Panathinaikos of Greece 2-0 in the Final of the European Cup at Wembley last June.
