Boxing Day Relish

HOW times have changed! To many of us it does not seem so many years ago that a full list of League fixtures was fulfilled on Christmas Day.

It is in fact quite a time since this practice was discontinued, and extra relish is added to a Boxing Day match in consequence. The last year in which anything like a full League programme was held on Christmas Day was as long ago as 1957.

The following year a very limited number of League matches were played on Christmas Day, and coincidentally a match between Spurs and West Ham United, at Upton Park, was among them.

Our visitors today, to whom we extend a cordial and seasonal welcome, won that particular match 2-1.

Years ago the Christmas period was often a nightmare from a footballer's point of view. Three matches in four days, often made more irksome by curtailed rail services, was a common experience, and the extra problem of urgent treatment to injuries also arose.

When Christmas Day fell on a Thursday, many clubs were faced with a programme of three matches in three successive days, although the last time that happened to Spurs was way back in 1930.

Fixture congestion now takes a different form. It has been eased at Christmas, but success in Cup competitions means a pile-up in matches which can stretch throughout the season. Just take a look at the fixture page elsewhere in this programme!

We are grateful for the short breathing space since our First-leg tie in the Semi-final of the Football League Cup last Wednesday, and our next League engagement on the Crystal Palace ground next Saturday.

BIG OCCASION

It is, in fact, fitting that we should have had a few days to anticipate such an important match as today's League engagement with West Ham. This fixture is one of the big occasions of our season, and is always eagerly awaited.

Last season we had the pleasure of playing West Ham on this ground in the opening League match. The gate figure that day was 53,640, a crowd exceeded only when Manchester

United were here in the League and on the occasion of the F.A. Cup replay with Liverpool in March.

The Hammers held us to a 2-2 draw on that August day last season. It was an entertaining match, particularly in the first half. Alan Gilzean gave Spurs the lead, but within seconds the Hammers were level with a spectacular goal from our old friend, Jimmy Greaves.

Gilzean headed into the net to regain the lead for Spurs, and we were in front by 2—1 at half-time. West Ham's second equaliser came early in the second half from Peter Bennett, who was transferred to Orient a few weeks later.

The teams in last season's match were:

SPURS: Jennings; Evans, Knowles, Mullery, England, Bond, Gilzean, Perryman, Chivers, Peters and Pearce.

WEST HAM: Grotier; Bonds, Lampard, Bennett, Stephenson, Moore, Best, Brooking, Hurst, Greaves and Howe.

DIVISION ONE SCORERS

Clyde Best leads West Ham's scorers in the League with 10 goals. The other 12 have been scored by Geoff Hurst and Bryan Robson 3 each; Trevor Brooking and Billy Bonds 2 each; and Bobby Moore and Ade Coker 1 each.

PALACE NEXT

Spurs' next League engagement is away to Crystal Palace on Saturday . . . Palace, promoted in 1969, have yet to beat a London club in a First Division match, a situation we hope will still apply this time next week! . . . Palace drew their last match, at home to Leeds last Saturday week, 1—1 . . . Palace newcomers since our League match here in September, who are likely to play against us are Bobby Kellard (Leicester), John Craven (Blackpool), Sam Goodwin (Airdrieonians) and John Hughes and Willie Wallace, both from Celtic . . . Palace have won only three home League matches this season . . . Since Palace won promotion, Spurs have won every League match against them without conceding as much as a goal . . . Last season the margin at Selhurst was 3—0 to Spurs . . . Palace finished 18th in the First Division last season . . . Bert Head, Palace's manager, was a centre-half with Torquay and Bury in his playing days.

SPURS' LEAGUE SCORERS

Chivers 14; Gilzean 9; Peters (2 pens.) 7; Pearce 3; Mullery 2; Neighbour, England and Pratt 1 each.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

1. A former West Ham player is now managing a Third Division club. Who is he?
2. Dave Dunmore played at centre-forward for another London club in addition to Spurs and West Ham. Can you name the other club?
3. Mr. Ron Greenwood, West Ham's manager, played for three London clubs before retiring from the playing field. Can you name them?
4. Which club knocked West Ham out of the F.A. Cup last season, and in which round were they defeated?
5. A former Spurs and West Ham player is now player-coach to Walsall. Who is he?

The answers will be found on page 13

THE HAMMERS . .

BOBBY FERGUSON (Goalkeeper). A full Scottish international, who was born at Ardrossan. Made a big name with Kilmarnock, and joined West Ham in May, 1967.

JOHN McDOWELL (Defender). A local from East Ham, and a former member of the Newham and Essex Boys teams. A former apprentice, he has been a full professional with West Ham since August, 1969. A former England Youth international.

TOMMY TAYLOR (Defender). Born at Hornchurch and discovered by Orient. Established himself as a League player with Orient, and was transferred to West Ham for big money in October, 1970. Made his League debut for West Ham against Spurs at Upton Park last season.

BOBBY MOORE (Defender). No player in the country needs less of an introduction. If anyone happens to be unaware of it, he holds the O.B.E., captains England, has enough honours to fill this page and is a product of the Barking and Essex Boys teams.

FRANK LAMPARD (Defender). Another local, born in West Ham. Gained five England Youth caps, became a full professional in 1965, and made his First Division debut two years later.

BILLY BONDS (Midfield). Born at Woolwich, and played for Kent Schools before signing for Charlton Athletic. Moved to West Ham at a big fee in May, 1967. Has two Under-23 caps, and last season won the "Hammer of the Year" award.

BRYAN ROBSON (Midfield). Popularly known as "Pop". Born at Sunderland, and played for Northumberland Boys. Turned professional with Newcastle United and played for the England Under-23 team. Transferred to the Hammers last February.

TREVOR BROOKING (Midfield). A former Schoolboy international, who was born in Essex. Has been a full professional since May, 1966. A qualified F.A. coach.

HARRY REDKNAPP (Forward). Comes from Poplar, and developed in the East London and Middlesex Boys teams. Gained six England Youth caps, and has been a professional since March, 1964.

GEOFF HURST (Forward). Another in the Bobby Moore class. Many times capped for England, and his three goals against West Germany in the World Cup Final of 1966 gives him a special place in football history. Born at Ashton-under-Lyne, but played for Chelmsford Boys before joining West Ham's ground staff.

CLYDE BEST (Forward). Born in Bermuda, for whom he played in the World Cup qualifying series. Signed as a professional for the Hammers in April, 1969, and made his League debut in August, 1969.

DAVID LLEWELYN (Forward). Born in Cardiff and played for Cardiff Boys. Joined West Ham as a full professional in August, 1966, and made his League debut in March, 1970.

JOHN AYRIS (Forward). Returned to West Ham's League team on the Saturday before Christmas. Born at Wapping, and developed through the apprentice ranks at Upton Park. Has been a full professional since October, 1970. A former England Youth international.

KEVIN LOCK (Midfield). Another former England Youth international, who was named as substitute for the match with Newcastle last Saturday week. Born at Plaistow and played for Newham and Essex Boys.

MAN IN CHARGE

The referee today is Mr. Ronald Challis of Tonbridge. He started refereeing in 1952 while serving with the R.A.F. in Singapore, and after his return to England the following year graduated through various Kent leagues to the Southern League in 1959.

Mr. Challis was appointed to the Football League Line in 1962, and promoted to referee six years later.

In 1968 he officiated as linesman in the Inter-Cities Fairs Cup match between Linfield and Vitoria Setubal, and in season 1969-70 refereed the F.A. Challenge Trophy Quarter-final. Last season he was a linesman in the F.C. Twente v. A.E.K. Athens Fairs Cup match.

Mr. Challis, a production officer on an industrial staff magazine, is married with two sons. A keen member of the Referees' Association, he is Chairman of the Tunbridge Wells Branch of Referees, a post he has held for more than eight years.

His other interests include photography, swimming and squash.

OLD SPUR . . .

A welcome visitor at our last home League match was Mel Hopkins, our former Welsh international full-back.

Mel, who gained well over 30 international caps, signed as a professional for Spurs in May 1952, and left us for Brighton and Hove Albion in October, 1964.

After a spell with Canterbury City in the Southern League, Hopkins returned to League football with Bradford Park Avenue, who failed to gain re-election to the Fourth Division at the end of season 1969-70.

Mel lives at Shoreham-by-Sea, and is now sports teacher at the Dorothy Stringer Secondary School in Brighton. He also coaches works teams three evenings a week and is secretary of the Sussex Coaches Association.

Mel usually watches Brighton play, but thoroughly enjoys his occasional trips to see Spurs.

"Spurs are a great club to play for," says Mel. "I came to White Hart Lane as a boy, and always feel it was a second home to me."

FLASHBACK

TO BOXING DAY 10 YEARS AGO

Spurs were away to Chelsea, then bottom of the table, and we won the match 2-0. Jimmy Greaves scored the first goal in the first half, and Cliff Jones netted the second after half-time.

CHelsea: Bonetti; Shellito, Harris, A.; Malcolm, Scott, Bradbury; Bra-brook, Tambling, Moore, Bridges and Harrison.

SPURS: Brown; Baker, Henry; Blanchflower, Norman, Mackay; Medwin, White, Allen, Greaves and Jones.

TO BOXING DAY 20 YEARS AGO

Charlton Athletic beat Spurs here by 3-2. Peter Murphy and Sonny Walters scored to give us a half-time lead of 2-0, but Charlton floored us with second-half goals from Billy Kiernan (2) and Tony Pawson.

SPURS: Ditchburn; Ramsey, Withers; Wetton, Clarke, Burgess; Walters, Baily, Bennett, Murphy and Medley.

CHARLTON: Bartram; Hewie, Lock; Fenton, Ufton, Hammond; H. A. Pawson, Vaughan, Hurst, Kiernan and Duffy.

Greetings to Joe Kinnear, who celebrates his birthday today.

GOOD POINT

Liverpool 0, Spurs 0

In view of the stresses and strains imposed by our U.E.F.A. Cup match against Rapid Bucarest in Rumania three days earlier, the League team did well to bring back a point from Liverpool in our last First Division match last Saturday week.

A goalless draw at Anfield is becoming a practice. Including last season's F.A. Cup match, our last four visits to Liverpool have ended in a 0-0 draw.

The first half was fairly even with slight territorial advantage to Liverpool, but in the second half we were certainly under a lot of pressure. In the last quarter of an hour particularly, Liverpool, with their powerful running, were the stronger team, but our defence performed extremely well, and Pat Jennings, usually a star turn at Anfield, was in top form.

We had some narrow escapes, but though they were fewer in number, there were chances for Spurs at the other end. Apart from his early "goal" that was disallowed, Mike England had an effort cleared off the line, and goalkeeper, Ray Clemence was greatly relieved when he managed to save from Jimmy Pearce.

Pearce sustained a knock on the hip, and played under a handicap for much of the game. Phil Holder took his place for the last few minutes, and made the most of his first taste of League football.

Team: Jennings; Evans, Want, Coates, England, Beal, Pratt, Naylor, Chivers, Peters and Pearce (sub. Holder).

PENALTY DECIDER

Spurs Res. 3, West Ham United Res. 2

It took a penalty-kick, converted with ease by Graeme Souness, in the 83rd minute to give Spurs Reserves victory over West Ham in the Combination here last Saturday week.

The score stood at 2-2 when the spot-kick was awarded, and following vigorous protests by West Ham, Peter Eustace, their captain, was ordered off.

The teams were evenly matched, but the better goalscoring chances fell to Spurs. In the 25th minute Souness headed a fine goal from a cross by Joe Kinnear on the right, and three minutes later Ray Clarke took advantage of a mix-up in the Hammers defence to score a second.

David Llewelyn reduced the lead before half-time and in the 41st minutes Eustace netted from the penalty spot after Joe Peck had been penalised for an alleged infringement on Joe Durrell.

It was a lively, entertaining match that was full of incident.

Team: Daines; Kinnear, Jones, E., Mullery, Peck, Dillon, Neighbour, Souness, Woolcott, Clarke and Morgan.

AWAY WIN

Reading Youth 0, Spurs Youth 2

On the same day the Youth team were away to Reading in the South-East Counties League, and were good winners by 2-0.

Both goals were scored in the first half, and Gary Mabee netted both. The first was driven home after a shot by Chris McGrath had been parried by the Reading goalkeeper. Halfway through the half, Mabee gathered the ball just inside Reading's half of the field and hammered the ball in after beating two opponents.

Team: P. Matthews; Boughey, R. Walker, J. Field, Osgood, McGrath, Cook, Margerrison, Mabee, Clapton and Gibbins.

Spurs Juniors were beaten 2-1 by West Ham United in the South-East Counties, Div. 2 at Cheshunt on the Saturday before Christmas. Bobby Scarth scored our goal.

SEE THE SPURS AT SELHURST

For the benefit of supporters planning to travel by road to our away match with Crystal Palace on Saturday, and unfamiliar with that area of South London, we have reproduced the above R.A.C. map, showing the approach route to Selhurst Park from Brixton.

The R.A.C. recommend the route via Brixton Road to the junction with Acre Lane and Coldharbour Lane. Then bear left into Effra Road, and then ahead via Tulse Hill to West Norwood, bear right into Knights Hill (A.215) and continue via Beulah Hill and South Norwood to White Horse Lane, which is the seventh turning on the right. Turn right into White Horse Lane and the ground is on the left. Approximate distance from the Tottenham area is 17 miles.

There is parking space at the ground and some street parking is allowed but controlled by the police, so watch for the signs, including diversions.

MANY THANKS

The Club thanks everyone who has conveyed greetings and messages of goodwill this Christmas, and we offer a special word of appreciation to our young supporters in Class 3J of Eversley Junior School, Chaseville Park Road, Winchmore Hill, for their delightful Christmas tableau, and to Mrs. B. Jasman, their class teacher, for delivering it in person.

Were you right ?

Answers to Test Your Knowledge

1. John Bond, the former West Ham full-back, now manages Bournemouth, the Third Division club.
2. Dave Dunmore played for Orient in addition to Spurs and West Ham.
3. Mr. Ron Greenwood, West Ham's manager, was a player with Brentford, Chelsea and Fulham.
4. Blackpool defeated West Ham 4-0 in the Third Round of the F.A. Cup last season.
5. John Smith, former inside-forward or wing-half of Spurs and West Ham, is now player-coach to Walsall.

In view of the Christmas holidays it was necessary for these programme notes to be completed early last week. It has not, therefore, been possible for any reference to be made to last Wednesday's League Cup Semi-final with Chelsea or to the Reserve match with Queen's Park Rangers last Tuesday.
